

NINE KILLED; FOURTEEN INJURED

FLIM FLAM CASE WAS TRIED

Before Judge Enright Today—
Several Cases in Which Husbands Abused Wives

John Foley, a self-confessed flim-flam worker, who short-changed Mrs. Holene Gelineau, who conducts a store at 66 Merrimack street, out of $5, was arraigned before Judge Enright in police court this morning and after he entered a plea of guilty to a complaint charging him with larceny, the court seriously considered giving the defendant a direct sentence, but a cloud intervened for Foley and the court imposed a fine of $25.

Foley stated that his home is in Brooklyn, but he had been around Boston for the past three weeks. He came to this city Tuesday and purchased a five-cent cigar at Mrs. Gelineau's store for which he offered a $10 in payment. He received $9.55 back and then he asked her to change the $5 bill which she did, but after he had left the store, she found that she was $5 short.

Foley was arrested in Lawrence the day before yesterday for attempting to work the same trick and yesterday morning in court in that city he was fined $10. He was then arrested on a warrant by Inspector McCloughry and brought to Lowell.

Broke Into Freight Cars.
Irving Moore and David Bowden were charged with breaking and entering freight cars belonging to the Boston & Maine railroad and the larceny of numerous articles. They pleaded guilty to larceny, but denied having made a break, claiming that two other fellows whose names they did not know, broken open the seats in the doors.

The articles which it is alleged were stolen from the cars were as follows: 260 knives, each of the value of five cents; 26 knives at 15 cents each; 12 at four cents; 22 pairs of cut buttons; 18 cents per pair; nine shirts each of the value of $1; eight pairs of drawers, $1 each; 98 bottles of cologne, 44 cents each; bottle of powder, 33 cents; 83 jewelry cases, seven cents each; 124 pin cushions, 7 cents each; 23 candle sticks, seven cents each and 15 match holders, seven cents each.

Deputy Downey testified that he questioned the defendants and several other boys in the guard room at the police station last Sunday and the boys admitted that they had received articles which had been taken from the Boston & Maine tracks near Wameest, but they denied having made a break.

James W. Webster, special officer of the Boston & Maine railroad, testified that on Dec. 15 eight cars on the tracks in Wameest had been broken into and numerous articles stolen.

Irving Moore, one of the defendants, testified that he was 18 years of age and lived in South Whipple street. He said he and Bowden were going skating on the day of the break and they came across two fellows, whose names he could not remember, went with them, and saw them break into the cars and take articles. He said he took two knives.

David Bowden, aged 17 years and living in State street, the other defendant, corroborated the testimony offered by Moore and added that he took two boxes of candy.

Mrs. Bowden, mother of one of the defendants, said that her son had always been a good boy up to the present time and believed that he had learned a lesson and would not do such a thing in the future.

The court was inclined to be lenient with Bowden on account of his mother and the former was placed in the custody of the probation officer while Moore was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory.

James P. Sheehan and Norman Bowden, juveniles, were arraigned on similar complaints in the juvenile session and Bowden was sentenced to the reformatory and the case of Sheehan was continued until next Friday when he will be committed to the boys' school at Shirley.

Assaulted His Wife.
There was a lively time at the home of Alphonse Auger in Moody street Christmas day, according to Mrs. Ernestine Auger, who had her husband before the court on complaints charging him with threatening and assault and battery.

Mrs. Auger testified she had been married to her present husband 11 years but about three years ago she had to leave him and go to Manchester, N. H., but about two months ago she returned to him in this city after he had promised to treat her better. She said her husband awoke early in the morning and asked her to get him a glass of whiskey, which she did. Shortly after that he asked for another glass and she gave him the second one. She then went into her room and dressed herself and was leaving the room when her husband rushed at her and assaulted her, threatening her with a knife. She said that her children were present when her husband assaulted her.

Struck His Wife.
The only charge against Nicholas Balancier was that of drunkenness, but Patrolman Joseph Clark said that the man had been raising a disturbance in the house and he had been sent for to arrest the man. Mrs. Balancier, who resides at 65 Railroad street, said that her husband struck her last night. She said he was under the influence of liquor at the time. The court gave the defendant a suspended sentence of four months in jail and placed him on probation for six months, adding that if Balancier struck his wife again he would be sent to jail.

Other Offenders.
Adolph Crevier was sentenced to 15 days in jail and three first offenders were released.

Juvenile Session.
There was a list of cases heard by Judge Enright in the juvenile session. Sentences were imposed in some cases while in others probations were handed out and some were continued.

PARDON RECORD OF 98.
Established in Massachusetts in 1912

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—A new pardon record of 98 cases was established in Massachusetts in 1912, according to the annual report of the executive clerk today. The previous record was 75 in 1911.

The governor and executive council liberated ten murderers serving life sentences, and one man convicted of manslaughter.

15,020 Parcel Post Packages.
BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Reports from all stations in the local postal district show that 15,020 parcel post packages were handled on Jan. 1, the day the parcel post was inaugurated. The general post office received 1975 packages.

SMUGGLERS ATTACKED AND ROBBED

CATTLE RAISER OF $90,000

Fierce Battle on Portuguese-Spanish Frontier—Civil Guard of Entire Province Called Out

VALENCA DO MINHO, Portugal, Jan. 3.—A daring band of smugglers on the Portuguese-Spanish frontier carried off $90,000 in cash today after a fierce battle with a cattle raiser and 40 of his herdsmen, in the course of which nine of the cowboys were killed and 14 severely wounded. Jose Murilhas, one of the best known cattle breeders in the province of Minho, had been for several weeks passing from fair to fair and had disposed of three herds of bulls. He then started for home with the Portuguese equivalent of $90,000 in notes and cash with him. He was guarded by 40 of his herdsmen.

Early this morning while he was passing close to the border between Portugal and Spain he was suddenly attacked by a large band of armed smugglers, who fired on his party from behind rocks and thickets. The herdsmen returned the fire but finally were forced to flee. They carried off Jose Murilhas, who had been seriously wounded, with them but left the whole of the money and 23 of their comrades on the field, nine dead, some fatally injured and the rest badly wounded. The civil guards of the entire province have been called out and are searching for the smugglers and the treasure, but no trace of them has yet been found.

TERRIFIC WIND AND RAIN STORM

Swept the South Atlantic Coast—
Worked Havoc With Shipping and Destroyed Wires

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The south Atlantic coast states today were in the grip of a terrific wind and rain storm which worked havoc with shipping and cut the cities of Norfolk and Newport News off from the outside world. All land wires leading out of those cities were destroyed. Before the last wire went down a telegraph operator in Newport News told his wire chief in Washington the gale was such that the water of the James river was surging up into the lower part of the city with the violence of a small tidal wave.

The navy wireless sent out unanswered calls for words of the ships of the Atlantic fleet gathering in Hampton Roads today, preparatory to sailing for the southern drill grounds. Great anxiety was felt for the torpedo boats and destroyers in so narrow a seaway as the roads.

Incidents reports coming in while the storm was at its height, were that many oyster boats in the river and many other small craft had been sunk. The loss of life, if any, was not known then.

Storm of Extraordinary Violence.
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Three storms of extraordinary violence, occurring in widely separated sections of the country were reported by the telegraph companies here almost simultaneously today. The first of the storm's rage south of Washington. For a time there was but one wire working between Washington and Atlanta. Shortly before noon there was not a wire working south of Atlanta; all had been prostrated by the storm.

Next in violence was a wind storm in the middle west which levelled scores of wires between here and Chicago. At one time during the forenoon, there were but five wires working between the two cities.

The third storm area was in the states of Washington and Oregon.

Through the loss of our steam power plant which was completely destroyed in the fire yesterday morning, the conducting of our business has been temporarily interrupted. We have negotiated with an electrical concern for the installation of motors to furnish electric power, and our plant is now being equipped. We will be ready for business MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 6th, and hope to have the entire plant in operation.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN FALL RIVER

Over Report That Chas. H. Richardson, a Lowell Man, Ended His Life

A dispatch has been received in this city stating that Medical Examiner Thomas P. Gunning has announced the death of Charles H. Richardson, Jr., which occurred in Fall River last Saturday, was the result of strychnine poisoning. Mr. Richardson was superintendent of the Shove mills in that city.

The deceased is a son of Mr. Charles H. Richardson of Methuen street, Lowell, and when a representative of The Sun called upon the latter this morning it was to learn that the father of the dead man had no knowledge of the affair other than that published in the press. Mr. Richardson senior did not appear to be in the best of health, and was unable to attend the funeral of his son last week. He is unwilling to believe reports contrary to the statement that his son died from natural causes.

That the death of Mr. Richardson, Jr., was due to apoplexy, was the substance of the report of the family physician, but the examination of Dr. Gunning seems to reveal the fact that the mill man died from the effects of strychnine. His father told the writer that the dead man has been away from Lowell for some years and that nothing was known here of any trouble that would cause him to commit suicide. The local relatives of the Fall River man are naturally very much broken up over this report of the medical examiner. The dispatch from Fall River alleges that Supt. Richardson had been dependent over alleged thefts from his mill for which arrests have already been made. The whole matter has caused a great sensation in Fall River. The despatch follows: Continued to page four

BODY OF MINISTER REID ARRIVED

Cruiser Natal, With Guard of American Warships Completed Journey Today

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The body of John the Divine, not far from the anchor. A corporal and two privates from Battery F, Third field artillery, Fort Meyer, Virginia, stood at attention at the caisson, to which eight horses were hitched.

At the funeral services at the cathedral tomorrow there will be present among others President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and James Bryce, the British ambassador.

Will Hold Banquet.
The fire insurance men of this city will hold their annual banquet on Jan. 8. The affair will be held in the Fire Underwriters' headquarters in the Central block and it is expected will be largely attended. There will be speeches before concerning this particular business and a good time is predicted for all those who will participate in the festivities.

Convoyed Up Hudson.
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Steaming slowly in a dense fog, the British cruiser Natal, bearing the body of Whiteley Reid, late United States ambassador to England, passed in Sandy Hook shortly after eight o'clock this morning. Accompanying her as a guard of honor were the United States battleships Florida and North Dakota and the destroyers Roe, Drayton, McCall and Paulding. Leaving quarantine arrangements called for slow progress of the vessels into the harbor and up the Hudson to the foot of West 96th street, where the body will be removed to the cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the Natal weighed anchor and started up the Hudson.

The Florida returned the Natal's salute of 19 guns and, as did the other ships in the cortege, broke out the English ensign at her military mast. One shore, at a nearby pier, there awaited a black draped caisson on which the late ambassador's body was

Worked in Lowell.
Charles Fox Schofield, aged 25 years, a native of Stonington, died suddenly a few days ago, in Montville, Conn. Mr. Schofield was a pioneer woolen manufacturer, and was well known among mill men throughout the country. He had recently disposed of property in the town of Montville, to the Massachusetts Manufacturing company. After spending some time, as a boy, in his father's woolen mill in Westerly, R. I., he took charge of the business when he was but 20 years old, and from that time (1887) until recent years, was actively engaged in textile manufacturing. The following are some of the mills with which he was connected: O. M. Stillman mill, Westerly, R. I.; Middlesex mills, Lowell, Mass.; Naumkeag mills, Salem, Mass.; mill at Montville, Conn.; Oakdale mill, and others. He was the owner of the Montville and Oakdale mills. Mr. Schofield was bright and alert to the very end of his long and useful life.

Communication Impaired.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Fragmentary reports to the telegraph and the telephone companies here say the storm, approaching proportions of a cyclone, is general all along the South Atlantic coast, practically paralyzing communication between Richmond and Atlanta.

TEWKSBURY BOARD OF TRADE

Annual Meeting Held Last Night and Officers Elected--Other News of Interest

The board of trade of Tewksbury held its annual meeting last night in the town hall in the center. The affair was largely attended and the feature of the evening was the election of officers for the ensuing year. Considerable business was transacted and a committee was appointed to confer with the railroad officials for a trolley express through the village.

NO MORE CONSTIPATION IT'S ME FOR OLIVE TABLETS!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 37 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "bygone" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels to live and act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then a bad breath—a dull tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep regular. Try them.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Dr. H. M. Larrabee. The secretary's report was read and accepted and on account of the treasurer not being present his report will be read at the next meeting.

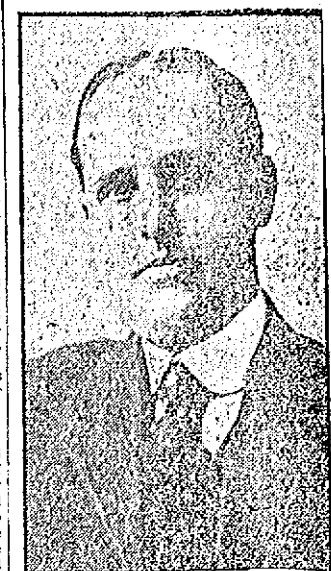

The following committee was appointed to confer with the officials of the Bay State Street Railway company as to the possibility of establishing a trolley express to the village: Arthur Foster, William Alexander, Carey Waterman and William Stead.

The result of election of officers was as follows: Dr. H. M. Larrabee, president; H. Lewis Farmer, vice president; Arthur Foster, secretary; Charles Kittredge, treasurer; Dr. H. M. Larrabee, H. Lewis Farmer, Arthur Foster, Charles Kittredge, Carey Waterman, James Simpson, Albert Briggs and Walter Robinson, directors.

A rather witty incident occurred in Tewksbury Centre yesterday afternoon, when a man raced with a bound dog which had stolen a package of meat. The incident took place near the general store and was witnessed by a large crowd of onlookers who were much amused. At the close of the race the man was declared the winner, but not before he had used all kinds of tricks.

The man who huffed from Reading alighted from a Lowell bound electric car and entered the general store, the town hall, but before he had left a small package weighing about two pounds and containing fresh meat, on the steps. When inside the store he inquired of the owner if he knew of any place here he could purchase small pigs. After receiving an answer in the negative, he bought a cigar and was enjoying a great smoke when shouts were heard on the outside. The smoker paid little attention to the excitement outdoors and puffed away at his stogie. Suddenly someone entered the store and informed those present that a package had been stolen from the store and that the thief which was no other than a huge bound dog, was making good his escape with the package.

At this point the smoker came out of

DR. H. M. LARRABEE,
Pres. Board of Trade.

package. The man and dog would probably be still running if it had not been for the fact that an oncoming automobile came to the rescue of the one whom it was thought would lose the race. The motor vehicle carrying along the owner of the meat got ahead of the dog and when the latter came near the machine, the siren whistle was blown repeatedly, which caused the animal to drop its prey and run into a nearby field.

The meat was recovered and the owner left the town on the next car for Reading, saying there was no law to prosecute dog thieves, but the best thing to do was to keep away from them. The numerous residents of the town who were attracted to the scene by the man's shouts, had a great time over the incident while the race was on.

To a Convention

Mrs. E. Morrell of the Centre has received word that her son, Dr. Austin W. Morrell, formerly a resident of the town, and now of Phoenix, Ariz., is attending a convention of entomologists, which is being held in Cleveland, O. The doctor before the close of the convention will deliver an address on entomological work in the state of Arizona.

Dr. Morrell was formerly in the employ of the United States government for many years, after graduating from the Massachusetts college of Agriculture at Amherst. A few years ago he accepted a lucrative position for the state of Arizona and severed his connection with the government to establish himself and family in the west. He has been very successful and is now known as one of the noted professors of entomology in the country.

Persons

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Chicago, and Miss Marguerite Lee, the latter a teacher in the Moses Brown school in Providence, R. I., are the guests of their parents in the village.

Mrs. Miriam Wiggan, teacher at the library school is suffering with neuritis in New Hampshire, where she went the holidays.

Mr. Alden S. Haines, the town blacksmith, has made a record in his line of business, having single handed shod 28 horses in one day.

Miss Violet Lawson of Boston is the guest of Mrs. John Hulse.

Mr. Thomas McAusland is greatly improving from the rheumatic shock he received a short time ago.

The name of Mr. M. Patten has been drawn for the jury list.

Messrs. Munroe Fuller and Paul Smith are kept very busy these days with their portable horse drawn sawing machines. The former has an air cooled machine, while the latter's is water cooled, and both claim theirs as the best.

Mr. W. A. Patten, who was laid up with a severe cold is able to be out again.

Dr. H. M. Larrabee, the town physician, reports several cases of illness. However, there is no case of scarlet fever.

Box Party

The members of the Christian Endeavor society held a very enjoyable box party in the church vestry Wednesday night. The affair was largely attended and provided great pleasure, especially for the young folks who were quite numerous. The party was held for the benefit of the church and was very successful. An elaborate entertainment program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections as well as readings was rendered. The boxes taken in by the young people netted a substantial sum.

FOR SALISBURY BEACH

Bill to Exclude Lowell From Reservation

In connection with the maintenance of the Salisbury Beach reservation, Representative Jewett has prepared an amendment, which if passed, will have the effect of excluding Lowell from the reservation district, thereby exempting Lowell from the special tax. Lowell legislators will resist taxation under the Salisbury Reservation Act. The law creating Salisbury beach district as a reservation is entitled "An Act to Make Salisbury Beach a Public Reservation and to Establish the Salisbury Beach Reservation Commission."

The power of the commission is such that it may expend at its pleasure, make a return to the state treasurer of the amount expended, with the result that the state treasurer levies on the cities and towns included in the reservation. Section 3 of the act outlines the extent of the reservation, as follows:

"The jurisdiction and powers of said commission shall extend to and may be exercised in the cities of Newburyport, Haverhill, Lawrence and Lowell, and the towns of Salisbury, Amesbury, Merrimac, Methuen, Andover, North Andover, Boxford, Georgetown, Groveland and West Newbury. The said towns shall constitute the Salisbury Beach Reservation District."

Section 15 gives the state treasurer the duty of levying upon the different cities and towns each year, and is as follows:

"The amount of money required each year from each city and town of the Salisbury Beach Reservation district to meet the interest, bond requirements, and expenses aforesaid for each year, shall be estimated by the treasurer of the Commonwealth in accordance with the proportion determined as aforesaid, and shall be included in, and made a part of the sum charged to such city or town, and shall be assessed upon it in the apportionment and assessment of its annual state taxes, and the treasurer shall annually notify each city and town of the amount of such assessment, and the same shall be paid by the city or town into the treasury of the Commonwealth at the time required for the payment, and as a part of its state tax."

Held Coffee Party

The coffee party at Grace church, last night, was well attended and was served under the direction of Mrs. George W. Randall, with Mrs. Charles N. Woodward at the head of the dining room. At 8 o'clock there was an entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Leon Gage and Miss Bertha M. Abbott, consisting of songs and a reading illustrated by tableaux. Miss Ruth Crawford was the reader, the singers were Mrs. F. L. Roberts and Miss Esther M. Green, and the accompanist was Miss Chase, the church organist. The tableaux were quickly beautiful, indicating true artistic insight, in conception, in posing and in costuming.

The selections were as follows: "Beautiful Lady" from "The Pink Lady," Miss Nellie Snow.

"Comin' Thru' the Rye," Miss Gertrude Weinbeck and Mr. Roland Black.

"Grandma's Memories," Mrs. William Green, Miss Elmer Trull, Mrs. Leon Gage, Miss Eloise Dion, Miss Bertha Adams, Miss Bertha Abbott, Miss Ella Perham, Messrs. Willard Parker and Roland Black.

"Daddy Dear," William Sherwell, Misses Eloise Dion and Nellie Snow.

"Come Back to Erin," Miss Bertha Adams and Miss Ruth Crawford.

"Halls," Miss Gertrude Weinbeck.

"Ever of Thee," Miss Nellie Snow.

"Love's Old, Sweet Song," Miss Margaret Smith and Loring Kew.

FELKER NOW GOVERNOR OF N. H.

Progressives Unite With Democrats and Put Democrat in Chair

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 3.—Thirty progressives, combining with the democrats in the legislature, last night elected Samuel D. Felker of Rochester, democrat, governor of New Hampshire on the first ballot taken. This fusion resulted directly from the fight for speaker of the house, in which the republicans and democrats had been deadlocked, with the 30 bluff moose voting solidly for their own candidate, William J. Britton of Wolfboro.

When vote after vote for speaker had been taken, the progressives, holding the balance of power, and the democrats agreed to a swap, by which Britton was to be elected speaker and the progressives were to turn their aid to Felker.

As a result, when the joint session last night came to a vote on governor, Felker won over Franklin Worcester of Hollis, republican, 222 to 121. Earlier in the day, in the session of the house, Britton had won the speakership, 217 to 192, over Charles A. Perkins of Manchester, republican.

As the constitution of the state requires that the governor shall be inaugurated on the second day of the legislature's session, the rather unusual ceremony of administering the oath of office at 10:15 o'clock at night took place last evening, the oath being administered by Enos M. Sawyer of Franklin, president of the senate. The governor spoke briefly, announcing that he will deliver his formal inaugural address Tuesday at noon.

The joint legislative convention last night also filled four vacancies in the senate, electing four democrats to the open places and giving that party a majority in the upper house.

The democratic-progressive coalition yesterday also elected three democratic councillors, making the council entirely democratic. With this went the presidency of the senate to Enos K. Sawyer of Franklin.

All that the republicans retained in either branch of the legislature was the clerk and assistant clerkship of the house and the sergeant-at-arms.

The speakership and clerkships were disposed of in the house at the morning session, Harrie M. Young and Bernard W. Carey being re-elected to the clerkships.

When the house met in the afternoon the votes for senators and governor were taken, the four senatorial vacancies being necessary to be filled before the governor could be voted for.

When the house met in the afternoon the votes for senators and governor were taken, the four senatorial vacancies being necessary to be filled before the governor could be voted for. The first ballot for senator showed that the democrats and progressives were still working together; John C. Hutchins, democrat, being elected 220 to 201, over Fremont D. Bartlett, republican, in the first district.

From then on it was merely a repetition of democratic victories, with only slight variations in the voting. Samuel H. Eden was elected over Eliza H. Carr in the seventh district, James Farnsworth of Nashua defeated Daniel M. Boyd in the 18th district, and John G. Parsons won over John Pen-der in the 24th district.

The democratic councillors elected

FEEL BADLY TODAY? CASCARETS TONIGHT.

THOROUGHLY CLEANSSES YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS WHILE YOU SLEEP

No one how had your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable and uncomfortable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish intestines—you always get the desired results with Cascarets and quickly, too. Don't let your stomach, liver and bowels make you miserable. Take Cascarets tonight; put an end to the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, backache and all other distresses; cleanse your inside organs of all the bile, gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery.

A 10-cent box means health, happiness and a clear head for months. No more days of gloom and distress if you will take a Cascaret now and then. All druggists sell Cascarets. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

LINCOLN'S MASQUERADE

Event Attracted Many to Lincoln Hall

The well known Lincolns of this city held the third in their series of masquerade dancing parties last evening in Lincoln hall on Gorbam street and the event was attended by marked success. As on previous occasions of the kind, a large gathering of friends of the organization was present and spent a very pleasant evening.

The feature event of the evening was the grand march of the patrons in various costumes and this started shortly before 9 o'clock. Among the variety of characters imitated by the young men and women were cowboys, sailors, soldiers, German lads, bell-boys, messenger boys, Scotch bagpipers, dairy-maids, Colonial maids, fairies, Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Quakeresses and others. Very many took seats in the gallery to look on at the event and the grand march which preceded the general dancing afforded these spectators a very pleasing spectacle. The forty or more variously attired couples wound in and about, following the leaders through the complicated procession, meeting and separating, and laughing and exchanging jovial remarks about one another's costumes.

The patrons received a very neat little dance order containing 16 numbers and several extras, and general dancing was enjoyed to music furnished by the Manhattan orchestra. After the second dance everybody unmasked and there were many surprises as the guests found out who their partners of a short time before were.

The officers in charge of the affair are deserving of commendation for the manner in which it was conducted, for it certainly furnished unlimited enjoyment to all who had the good fortune to be present.

The officers were as follows:
General manager, John Durkin; assistant general manager, Percy Edwards; floor director, Carl Mixer; assistant floor director, Joseph Carroll; chief aid, Stanley Marshall; list of members, Arthur Weatherall, Andrew Jenkins, Leo Rogers, Walter Chadwick, Frank Marshall, Thomas McDowell, Webster Rockwell, Frank Whelan, Raymond Burns, Frank Kelly, Edward Lamson, George Haggerty, Harold Dyer, Edward Brennan, John Mixer, Joe Salome, Philip Welch, George Little, Joe Hinesley, Martin Flanagan, Thomas Hession, Richard Monaghan, Paul McDonald, Leo Lyons, treasurer, Arthur B. Chadwick.

HEAD AND FACE FULL OF PIMPLES

Just Like Little Boils. Scratched Until They Bled. Face Disfigured. Itched and Burned. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Well as Ever.

A. F. D. No. 2, Albany, N. Y.—"Oremorning I got up with my head and face full of pimples. They looked just like little boils. The itching was so intense that I scratched them until they bled and then they formed a scab and kept bleeding. The scabs were so bad that I had to have my hair clipped. My face was disfigured so that I was ashamed to go out, and oh! how it itched and burned. I hardly got any sleep for almost a year."

"I used all kinds of salves and most every kind of medicine that anyone would prescribe to me, but without relief. Finally one day a lady said to me, 'Why don't you try Cuticura Soap and Ointment?' At once I tried them. I began to wash the sores twice a day with the Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment on the sores and in just about two months there were no signs of sores or no scars on my face or head, and my hair grew just lovely. I was as well as ever." (Signed) Mrs. Henry Lapierre, Nov. 1, 1912.

Why not have a clear skin, soft white hands, a clean scalp and good hair? It is your bright light. Cuticura Soap with an occasional use of Cuticura Ointment will bring about these coveted conditions in most cases when all else fails. Sold everywhere. Sample of each free with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

MAY NOT NAME GOETHALS

Taft Likely to Leave Work for Wilson

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Opposition of democratic senators to President Taft's plan of putting Col. George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, at the head of the civil government of the zone, took such proportions yesterday that some of Mr. Taft's advisers urged him to forego the plan and leave the creation of the new zone government to his successor, President-elect Wilson.

Some who talked with the president early in the day were convinced that he would canvass the situation further before abandoning his plan.

Others in close touch with the president were positive that out of consideration for Col. Goethals, whom he does not wish to involve in a political dispute, he would give up the plan, and that Col. Goethals immediately after appearing before the congressional committee formulating appropriations for fortifications of the canal would return to his work.

EXCITEMENT IN FALL RIVER

Continued

Fall River Account

FALL RIVER, Jan. 3.—Charles H. Richardson Jr., the late superintendent of the Shove mills, was a suicide.

This is the official verdict returned to the police last night by the medical examiner for the district, Dr. Thomas F. Gunning.

Two Fall River men and a Swansea resident are under arrest charged with being implicated in the wholesale thefts of cotton and cotton waste from the Shove mills.

Supt. Richardson, it is thought, feared the outcome, as the result of the vigilance of the Shove mill officials combined with the work of a paid detective from Rhode Island.

The thefts are believed to have worked on his mind. When he reached his home in Lincoln av. Friday night, after leaving the Shove mill office, it is thought he then and there planned to end his life.

Bought Strychnine Tablets

Last night Marshal John Fleet was made acquainted with the manner in which Supt. Richardson took his life.

Early Friday evening the late superintendent called upon Dr. Thomas F. Gunning, veterinarian of the board of health. The police say, and the statement is substantiated on the highest authority that Supt. Richardson asked Dr. Maloney over the telephone for a prescription for a poison that would kill a dog.

Dr. Maloney was told who was talking to him, and the question being entirely within the limit of professional lines, Dr. Maloney said that he would furnish a prescription that would kill the dog, if the superintendent so desired.

The veterinarian, it is stated, then informed Supt. Richardson that the prescription could be had at J. C. Brady's drug store.

Supt. Richardson was told that he could call for the prescription and that it would be furnished him.

Supt. Richardson lost no time in going to the drug store. In the meantime, however, Dr. Maloney had called to order the prescription, not believing that Supt. Richardson wanted it at such short notice.

Dr. Maloney was then called the second time by Supt. Richardson and asked to furnish the prescription. He did so.

He ordered that a grain of strychnine tablet be given and Supt. Richardson made the purchase of two-grain strychnine tablets and for this he signed his name on the poison sales book.

Druggist Brady was not at his place of business at the time and when rumors flew thick and fast yesterday that a purchase of some poison had been made at a local drug store, the poison sales book was looked at and the name of the late superintendent was found.

None on Druggist's Book

Medical Examiner Gunning was present at the time the discovery was made. The medical examiner then communicated his finding to City Marshal Fleet. In a statement which the medical examiner made last night he admitted that in his opinion there was no question but what Supt. Richardson was a suicide and that death was the result of strychnine poisoning.

Medical Examiner Gunning was not in the position last night to make any comment as to the course that Dr. Babcock pursued or should have pursued in making a report where sudden death was concerned or where there were circumstances involved that required further medical deliberation. Dr. Babcock in his interviews with the police would not listen to the suicide theory but in view of the discovery by Medical Examiner Gunning and the police last night, the suicide verdict has been firmly established.

Special Officer Waring of the North-corn police station made an inspection of the poison sales book of a number of drug stores yesterday without success, but a thorough inspection of Druggist Brady's poison sales book last night set at rest all doubt as to how Supt. Richardson met his death.

The developments during the day relative to the cotton thefts has not some will men busy and, it is said, that before the matter is finally cleared up that there is a strong possibility of more arrests being made, in addition to the number now before the court.

Holden Claims He Is Not Guilty

James Holden of Ridge st., J. William Dwyer of 3d st. and Felix Beaulieu of Swansea Center were arraigned yesterday at Newport in connection with the alleged theft of 20,000 pounds of cotton and 40,000 pounds of waste from the Shove mills.

Richardson for the past six years was superintendent of the Shove mills. The death certificate signed by Dr. D. A. Babcock gave the cause of death as apoplexy.

The declaration made yesterday is that the defense of James Holden, the rope and mill banding manufacturer, will be that he acted in good faith and his transactions were with Supt. Richardson. It will be claimed that most of his transactions with the late superintendent were in cash and that he had no guilty knowledge of any irregularity in the disposal of the cotton and waste.

Change in Billiards Rules

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Safety plays are to be retained as permissible in billiards and not to be penalized in the rules about to be established by the National Association of Amateur Billiard Players, according to a decision reached by the rules committee and announced today. Prominent amateur players had opposed the proposed rule on the ground that it would take from billiards what amounted to its only defensive element. The purpose of the rule was to do away with the elaborate wrecking of a match by a player who was unable to get his stroke and who would not allow his opponent to make any progress out of his turns at the table. Play lasting for five hours or more has often resulted from such exhibitions.

OWLS MAKE PROGRESS WILLING TO SAY GOODBYE

Have Enjoyed Prosperous Year
Castro Engages Passage for Tomorrow

The Nest of Owls of this city held the opening meeting of the year 1913 last night with a very large attendance. Many speeches were made on matters pertaining to the advantage of the order and much routine business was transacted.

The Lowell Nest of Owls begins the year 1913 under the most favorable auspices. The general order all over the English speaking world has made wonderful strides in every line of effort. Its membership has greatly increased and the annual reports coming in to the home nest show the subordinate nests everywhere in the United States to be strong financially.

The money remains absolutely under the control and dominion of the local members. The funds will be utilized for the only purpose intended, the payment of sick benefits, and death claims to its members, and the support of its widows and orphans.

The owl was founded in November, 1910, a little more than eight years ago, and has now a membership of over three hundred thousand in the United States alone. This growth has been as unostentatious as it has been remarkable, for its membership not only includes the manual laborer, but the business man, men of the professions, clergymen, governors of states and congressmen as well.

The Lowell Nest was instituted Dec. 19th, 1909 with Edward M. Bowers as president, Hector Turnbull as secretary, and John A. Bailey as treasurer.

During its existence it has paid out over thirteen thousand dollars in sick benefits and death claims. The Nest has three faithful doctors, and a zealous and devoted sick-visiting committee, and every sick owl's burden has been made lighter and his home has been made brighter and happier.

Widows and orphans of departed members have received their claims in many cases, before the funeral was over.

Last night the treasurer and the two secretaries, submitted their reports which show the Lowell Nest to be very strong financially and numerically, and is yet the largest nest by far in New England.

Past President Edward M. Bowers, just retiring, has the honor of being raised to the second degree by the supreme council of the order.

This is not only a recognition of Mr. Bowers' ability and zeal in the cause of Owlism, but is considered by Lowell Owls to be a great honor to the local nest.

For to quote the language of the supreme president of the order to Mr. Bowers, "We are proud to have you in the second degree, the notice of which you acknowledge, but much higher in the order."

"It is men of your kind that the order looks to for its management and its future success. Honesty and disinterestedness, your example, that is the highest commodity to be found in human nature."

This is a most flattering tribute to Past President Bowers and it was received with owl hoots long and loud, and a reception was tendered to him at the close of the business session.

Besides the regular routine work of the business meeting three candidates were received into the mysteries of Owlism, after which came the installation of the officers, elected at the last meeting.

The installation ceremony which was performed by Past President E. M. Bowers was very impressive, the full ritual of the order being used. Each officer installed received words of admonition and encouragement as well as a Scriptural quotation, and every man renewed his obligation to the order.

A most pleasing feature of the evening's exercises was the presentation by Past President Bowers of very appropriate souvenirs to Vice President J. E. MacCallum and T. E. Boucher, chairman of the board of auditors.

Mr. MacCallum has the honor of having brought in the greatest number of candidates for membership during the past year, and Mr. Boucher for distinguished services on important committee work and as chairman of the board of auditors.

Both gentlemen were completely surprised, but expressed their generous thanks in well chosen words. At the next meeting of the nest which will be held Thursday evening, Jan. 16 in 6185 hall, there will be a short business session, which will include the auditor's report and an initiation, etc. after which open house will be held for the remainder of the evening and every owl in Lowell is invited to this function.

A pleasing program of musical and literary numbers is prepared by the entertainment committee, under Chairman MacCallum.

His Honor Mayor James E. O'Donnell is to be the guest of the evening and will address the meeting. His subject will be "Municipal Government Under the New Charter."

The committee in charge under "Dick" Flynn has made liberal provision for the collection which will be served in the upper hall. A generous welcome is extended every owl in good standing in Lowell. Everything will be free and the upper room will be used for the audience. If the large hall will not accommodate all the owls who will come.

GAVE AWAY 40,051 EGGS

South End Diet Kitchen on Common Street Also Distributed 20,737 Quarts of Milk During Year

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—At the annual meeting of managers of the South End Diet Kitchen yesterday morning at the home of Miss Fanny T. Sturgis, 307 Beacon street, it was reported that 17,339 applications for assistance were received during the year and 20,737 quarts of milk and 40,051 eggs were distributed. NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Venezuela, engaged passage yesterday afternoon on the steamship Merika, sailing from Hamburg Saturday at 8 a. m. His valet will accompany him.

The officers of the line said that so far as they knew the Venezuelan would board the steamer at her pier like any other passenger. This would require, for a short time at least, to tread the soil of this country, from which he was barred when he arrived from Europe Tuesday on the liner La Touraine.

No formal charge to warrant his detention has been made against Castro beyond the report of La Touraine's surgeon that his physical condition made it advisable to keep him at Ellis island pending further medical examination. Before the decision of the immigration authorities was announced Castro declared he was willing to go back to Europe of his own accord.

Castro yesterday denied that he was seeking to stir up another revolution in Venezuela.

"It is impossible for me," he said, "to regain my lost fortunes. There is no reason to think that I want to stir up trouble, and no proof. This last word I give to the American people. While I may for the present be the enemy of the great people of the United States."

Asked about the money and lands he had lost in Venezuela, he replied: "All of my money was taken by Pres. Gomez. I am ruined. He robbed me of 25 millions of dollars. He even took my horse and my house, my furniture."

"This was done after my departure from Venezuela in 1905 to go to Europe for an operation. 'I have no money interests in Venezuela now. Everything is lost, even my honor. I have read a statement that Pres. Gomez has 'given' to Gen. Hernandez a number of shares in a Venezuelan company. These shares are mine and Pres. Gomez had no authority or right to dispose of them.'"

Gen. Castro said his wife was on the island of Tenerife, in the Azores.

NOBODY KNOWS WHAT

Something Happened in

Meriden Church

MERIDEN, Conn., Jan. 3.—Something happened in Meriden New Year's morning—they don't know what yet, because the evidence is conflicting.

When the chimes of St. Paul's Universalist church rang out a greeting to the new year, at midnight, several people of previously good repute living within the walls of the church declared the recognized such tunes as "How Dry I Am" and "I'd Rather Have Fingers Than Ties."

So sure were they of what they heard that comment became criticism and criticism produced complaint.

Chimes Master Horace Bodwell, also of previously good repute equal to that of his accusers, when remonstrated with yesterday by a trustee of the church, indignantly denied the unseemly levity implied in the tunes they say his chimes spilled upon the New Year's morning air. Bodwell said: "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds" and that's all, and that people of the neighborhood apparently don't know even the most common of the hymns when they hear them."

IN CHELMSFORD CENTRE

Officers of the Grange

Installed Last Night

The recently elected officers of the Chelmsford grange were installed last evening at the regular bi-monthly meeting in the Old Fellows hall. There was a large attendance and at the conclusion of the business meeting a bountiful supper was served by the gentlemen of the lodge.

The chairman of the supper committee was Mr. Emilie Paignon; he was aided by Messrs. Fred Fletcher, Wilbur Lapham, Walter Hilder, Isaac Knight, Eben G. Adams, Fred Hazen, William Tucker, Frank Lupton, David George, Fred A. Russell, George M. Seaton, Daniel Haley, John Eaton, Minot Bean and Walter Merrill, of whom some acted as waiters.

At the business meeting reports were made by the secretary and treasurer, Messrs. Harlem Knowlton and Frank Spaulding. Mr. C. D. Richardson, past master of the state grange, with the aid of Miss Rachel Marshall, installed the following officers: Master, Mr. Walter Hilder; overseer, Mr. Walter Vlekery; steward, Mr. Nathan Lapham; assistant steward, Mr. Fritz Pearson; gatekeeper, Mr. Aubrey Chabourne; treasurer, Mr. Frank Spaulding; secretary, Mr. Harlem Knowlton; chaplain, Mr. Isaac Stewart; Pomona, Miss Lena Tucker; Ceres, Mrs. Walter Hilder; Flora, Miss Ethel Davis; lecturer, Miss Eliza Spaulding; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Carrie E. Dupee; executive committee (three years), Mr. Frank J. Lupton.

Mr. Harlem Knowlton, secretary, will make the grange a New Year's present by keeping them supplied with 1913 calendars.

Grangers representing lodges from Littleton, Groton, Ayer, Lowell, all the Chelmsfords, Carlisle, Billerica and Dracut were present. Mrs. Charles Lyons, one of the charter members of the Chelmsford grange, honored the Chelmsford grange by her presence. The lecturer, Miss Eliza Spaulding, stated that the program for the coming year would be ready in a few weeks. At the close several interesting remarks were made by members of various lodges.

The report of the secretary, Mr. Harlem Knowlton, showed a membership of 226; gained at initiations 23, lost by death 2. The sum of $294.74 was cleared at the Middlesex North Agricultural fair.

A musical entertainment followed the banquet and was participated in by Messrs. Barney, Grace Dupee and Harriet Mansur of Lowell.

MITCHELL, THE TAILOR 24 Central St.

Thousands of men who read this announcement will be ordering clothing within six or eight weeks. They know it, and they know they know it.

In eight weeks' time those men will have to pay more for that Clothing than if they ordered now. They know that also, and they know they know it.

What is there about man that prevents him from being a saver? Why do you put off for eight weeks that which can better be done now? You can't plead lack of money, because I will take your order now and hold the suit for 8, 10, 12 weeks or longer, at which time you can take the suit and pay for it.

This is the dull season with me, as with all tailors. The only difference is that the others can afford to lie down and wait for busy season. I can't wait—my organization must be kept together. I must get work for the organization that brings me through the enormous spring season.

I don't want your profit nowadays—I want your business. To get that business I strain prices and values regardless of all the known laws of commerce. I have no goods in my stock that ought to be sold as low as ten dollars. But I'll take your order

OAKLANDS IMPROVEMENT ASSO.

Meeting Held and Officers Elected—Reports Submitted

The members of the Oakland Improvement Assn. held a meeting last night and transacted considerable business among which was the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The result of the election was as follows: President, Frederick A. Fisher; vice-president, Charles H. Hobson; secretary, John A. McKenna; treasurer, William Cogger; directors, C. F. Flannings, L. W. Hawkes, R. J. Welch, M. A. Adams, C. H. Clifton, S. S. Gilbert, C. J. Nay, E. L. Fletcher, J. French, Dr. C. E. Simpson, T. J. Boulger.

The meeting was held at the home of Francis W. Qua in Parkview avenue and was largely attended. Three new members were initiated, E. W. Ginn, Stanley E. Qua and Dr. Levine. The work done by the association during the year was gone through and showed that the members were alive and greatly interested in the welfare of their district.

President Frederick A. Fisher read a report covering the work of the past year by the association and pointed out the construction of the new street from Wentworth avenue to Parkview avenue and the building of a path from Parkview avenue to Hollywood street. A street has been named Shepard street and the path, Oakland path.

John A. McKenna read a report and this was followed by a report from Charles H. Hobson for the committee on streets. The latter called attention to the dangerous condition of the lower end of Wentworth avenue, along the car line, a similar report from John A. McKenna and said he hoped something would be done toward improvement.

The report for the month extermination committee was made by William Cogger who said that the committee has expended $203.85 in the work and covered practically all the territory bordering on Wentworth, Parkview and Hollywood avenues and had accomplished the destruction of a great deal of moth infestation.

Mark A. Adams reported for the mosquito destroyers. He said that nine separate operations between May 15 and Aug. 31, the stagnant pools in the lowlands had been covered with a mixture of kerosene and crude petroleum and he believed that temporary relief had been obtained. The cost of this had been less than $15.

Treasurer William Cogger gave his report for the year. He showed receipts from memberships of $79; from sale of wood, $146.34; collections for the payment of the cost of the new street and path, $115; miscellaneous, $16.28, making total receipts of $667.62. Expenditures were, moth work, $203.85; streets, $59.12; mosquitoes, $17.63; miscellaneous $17.50; total, $312.11. A balance on hand at the beginning of the past year was $253.68, and accounting for this, there was a balance on hand this year of $102.19 and considerable sums of money yet to be collected.

Messrs. Jesse H. Shepard, D. L. Page and J. H. Gullett were named as a nominating committee and, upon their suggestion, the officers were chosen for this year.

The sewer problem was discussed at length and it was evident that the members of the association believe that the sewer problem is one for immediate solution on the part of the city. The needs of the section were discussed.

Rebuild North Church Steeple
BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Descendants of Paul Revere have established a fund to rebuild the Old North church steeple, where, according to some local antiquarians, the two signal lanterns which sent Paul Revere to the saddle for his famous "midnight ride" were hung.

C. H. Holton, senior warden of the church, announced today that the work would be begun immediately. The walls of the famous steeple are crumbling as a result of the storms of the past century.

AFTER SCOURING WOODS

Man Turns Up at His Home

MANSFIELD, Jan. 3.—Residents of the east part of Mansfield, in the vicinity of Canoe river, were given a scare yesterday afternoon by the discovery in the woods of a man's coat, shoes, rubbers, collar and necktie. Near these was a notebook in which was the name of Alden Fuller, a resident of that part of the town.

Neighbors went to the home of the man and learned that he left home yesterday and had not returned. Word was then sent to Chief of Police Kennedy.

Chief Kennedy, with people of the east part of the town, scoured the woods about Canoe river for several hours believing that he left home yesterday and had not returned. Word was then sent to Chief of Police Kennedy.

Finally the searchers returned to the Fuller house, and there, seated by the fire, was Mr. Fuller, who claimed to have been bewildered last night and to have lost his way in the woods. Mr. Fuller was taken to the town farm, nearby, where he will be given attention until fully recovered from the effects of his exposure.

JONES TO SCOUT FOR REDS

Fielder Will Keep Manager Tinker Posted on Good Prospects in Northwestern Corner of Country

CINCINNATI, Jan. 3.—Fielder Jones, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, who is now in the lumber business in Portland, Ore., will scout for the Redlegs next season, it was announced yesterday. Manager Joe Tinker of the Reds is going to Portland next week to attend to affairs pertaining to his apple and cherry orchard there and he will have a talk with Jones.

Tinker expects to arrange to have Jones furnish him hot tips on promising young players in that region. Tinker's plan is to have experienced resident scouts in various parts of the country, instead of traveling scouts.

WORK OF THE FIRE PROTECTIVE

Its Operations During Past Year Show Its Advantage Over the Horse Drawn Vehicles

The protective company of the Lowell fire department, located in Warren street, which responds to every alarm of fire, was kept busy during the year 1912 and the annual report of the work of the company shows that the members were kept very busy and did very effective work in protecting property.

While this company has for years been noted for its excellent work the substitution of the automobile for the horse-drawn vehicles has resulted in an even higher grade of efficiency for the company is able to reach the scene of a fire much quicker.

During the year the company responded to 404 alarms of which 226 were bell alarms, 159 telephones, 17 stills and two automatic. They laid 425 covers and used 173 extinguishers and 84 tanks; also 775 feet of ladder were laid. They were on fire duty 457 1/2 hours and spent 647 hours on inspection duty. The automobile averaged 245 1/2 miles during the year. During the year the members responded to three second alarms and one general alarm.

The greatest amount of mileage in any one month was during December just ended when the machine traveled 152 miles while in August the mileage was the lowest, 23 miles.

The number of alarms responded to by months is as follows: January, 39; February, 13; March, 23; April, 32; May, 30; June, 37; July, 16; August, 12; September, 27; October, 31; November, 47; December, 50.

PUT DIRECT QUESTION TO TURKS

Peace Envoys Want Immediate Decision Whether Gov't Will Cede Adrianople

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The Balkan peace envoys have decided, it is reported, to put the direct question today to the Turkish delegation whether the Ottoman government is prepared to cede the fortress of Adrianople forthwith in the event of the Turks giving an indecisive answer. The Balkan allies will grant them a period of 24 hours and if their reply at the end of that time is unfavorable the conference will be suspended. No other question will be considered by the allies until this point has been settled.

Turkey Will Yield

Stojan Novakovich, the leader of the Serbian delegation, said he was sure the allies would ultimately carry their point. The Turks, he believed, would certainly continue to resist the giving up of Adrianople but soon facts would be stronger than theories and Turkey would be compelled in the end to give way.

Envoys from the beleaguered city as well as information obtained from British sources in Constantinople, M. Novakovich continued, indicated that the condition of the beleaguered garrison was an untenable one and that the capitulation of the fortress was merely a question of days and perhaps of hours. Once Adrianople had fallen in the possession of the allies, and its garrison had become prisoners of the besiegers the problem would solve itself. Representatives of the Albanian provisional government sent to the British foreign office this morning's map of which the future frontiers of Albania as desired by them were marked. If accepted this would deprive Greece, Serbia and Montenegro of half of the territories they have conquered since the beginning of hostilities.

Exchange Views

Count Mensdorf-Pouilly, Dietrichstein, Austro-Hungarian ambassador in London and Marquis Imperilli Di Franchavilla, Italian ambassador to Great Britain, exchanged views today concerning the future international administration of Albania, which it is said is to have a budget subsidized by the European powers, a body of military police, like that in the island of Crete, formed of native soldiers with officers and non-commissioned officers drawn from the military forces of the European powers, while probably Austria-Hungary and Italy will be entrusted with the naval police of the Albanian coast.

Joint Expeditionary Force

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 3.—Austria-

Hungary and Italy are making preparations to land a joint expeditionary force in Albania after the conclusion of the London conference, according to the Wiener Journal.

This step, it is said by many, is to be taken by the two allies in order to pacify Albania and to establish a new constitution of affairs there.

Report Adrianople Captured
PARIS, Jan. 3.—A rumor that the Turkish fortress of Adrianople has fallen into the hands of the Russians was current on the bourse here today.

Equitable Address for Sacrifices
SOFIA, Bulgaria, Jan. 3.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria in the course of an address this morning made some remarks on the situation which are regarded in many quarters as a threat that the war may be resumed. After expressing the hope that an agreement might still be reached by the peace conference now being held in London, he said:

"Should the impregnable wall of God be otherwise, we will not hesitate at a new recourse to arms to compel the enemy to give complete and equitable satisfaction for all our precious sacrifices."

Scarlet Fever Case
Board of Health Has Ordered School Physicians to Make Re-Examination of School Children
The board of health has ordered a re-examination of the schools, public and private, by the school physicians for the purpose of detecting any traces of scarlet fever. The board of health feels that the scarlet fever epidemic has reached low-water mark, but the board realizes that it is necessary to continue the enforcement of all rules having to do with the isolation of scarlet fever cases. The period for the attachment of scarlet fever cards to houses has been extended to six weeks and there is considerable complaint because of the fact that four new cases of the disease have been reported since the beginning of the New Year and three patients are being cared for at the temporary contagious hospital on the grounds of the Chelmsford street hospital.

Senate Adjourned
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—On account of the death of Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas the senate adjourned after a six minute session until noon tomorrow.

COURT ST. PAUL, C. O. F.

Officers Were Installed Last Evening

The regular meeting of the members of Court St. Paul, C. O. F., was held last night in C. M. A. C. hall and considerable business was transacted. Chief Ranger Raoul H. Monier presided and the installation of the recently elected board of officers took place, the installing officer being Deputy William Rival of Haverhill. The officers installed were as follows: Chief ranger, Paul T. Charbonneau; vice chief ranger, Laurent Richard; recording secretary, Albert Gellinas; financial secretary, J. A. Robillard; treasurer, John Pincaville; orator, Arthur Laviole; trustees, Adelard Sylvestre, Homer Ducharme and Edouard Raymond; conductors, Napoleon Ayotte and Joseph Forget; delegate to state convention, Raoul Monier; alternate, Arthur Laviole; and medical examiner, Dr. J. H. Roy. At the conclusion of the installing ceremony Deputy William Rival, in behalf of the members of Court St. Paul, presented a handsome gold ring to the retiring chief ranger, Raoul H. Monier. Although the latter was startled by the surprise, he managed to respond in a very appropriate manner. Three new members were admitted into the organization, they being Emile Borden, Pierre Guertin and Adelard Dumont. Many applications for membership were also read before the meeting. At the close of the business meeting a smoke talk was held and refreshments were served, while a musical program was rendered.

PAUL T. CHARBONNEAU

M.T.I. BACHELOR GIRLS

Enjoyable Costume Party at Mathew Hall

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season was the costume party given in Mathew hall last night by the M. T. I. Bachelor Girls.

The feature of the evening was the grand march which began at 9 o'clock and was participated in by about thirty couples. It was led by Miss Katherine G. Malone who was dressed in a decidedly gay and bright-colored palama costume. With her was Miss Jennie Wynn, who looked very charming in white. There were many original characters represented in the costumes, John O'Neill, a lady baseball player and many others, both pretty and funny. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Middlesex Union orchestra, and there was a long program, lasting until midnight. Mrs. Blanche Rousin, Froette of Lowell, composed the music for the grand march. She has dedicated the march to President-elect Wilson.

MARY C. GALLAGHER President

The judges who awarded prizes for the prettiest and most original girls' costume and the neatest and most original boys' costume, were James Kelley and Harry Welch of Lowell and Leo Murphy of Lawrence. Miss Katherine Malone won the prize for the prettiest girls' costume; Mrs. Adelina Powers, as Miss Hopkins, was awarded the prize for the most original girls' costume; John O'Neill, who was costumed as a Red Cross hospital attendant was the winner of the prize for the neatest boy present, and James Powers, the hood-carrier, was declared to be the most originally clad boy in the hall.

The officers who conducted the dance are to be congratulated on a very pleasant and successful affair. They were as follows: General manager, Miss Mae C. Gallagher; assistant general manager, Miss Madeline Boland; floor marshal, Miss Katherine Malone; assistant floor marshal, Miss Lena Sheehan; chief aid, Miss Rita Finnegan; aids, Misses Marion Nolan, Lillian Smith, Julia Boland, Helen Buckley, Rose Nicholson, Marion Smith, Elizabeth Sullivan, Mae T. Gallagher, Anna McHale, Agnes Nicholson, Katherine King, Elizabeth Latham, Eleanor Buckley, Mae Boyle, Cecelia Leno, Isabelle Burns, Mae Dougherty, Lillian McPherson, Lena Reardon, Molly Peterson, Estelle Connolly, Mae King, Lydia Gallagher, Marion Devine, and Estella Clancy.

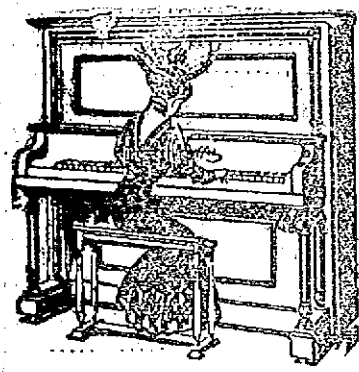

City Hall Briefs
A story having to do with the abatement of taxes appeared in The Sun a few days ago and it was stated that the amount of abatements for the last twelve years was about $133,000. One of the assessors was asked this morning what effect the abatement of taxes would have upon the tax rate and he answered that it would have no effect at all. It seems that if the abatements are always taken into consideration and are cut out, so to speak, when the tax rate is estimated, who William F. Sadlier has been put in charge of the lights by the city engineer George H. Brown at a cost of $2 a day. He started to work on this day night of the present week.

Jan. 3.—Death came this week to a private hospital at the request of his son, Foxhall Keene, was against his own wishes as he had indicated the assertions of the doctors that he was in a critical condition. Mr. Keene was 74 years old, having been born in London in 1838. His early life was spent in California as a miner, where he eventually made a fortune in stocks. His later career in Wall Street came to a practical end with the collapse of the Columbus &ocking pool of which he was partner in January, 1910. Mr. Keene has owned many of the most prominent racehorses in this country and Europe and his winnings for many years were the largest of any one American turfman.

GIRL BOUND AND GAGGED

Charlestown Home Was Visited by Burglar

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Bound and gagged by a burglar, whom she discovered ransacking her room at 5 Phinney street, Charlestown, early yesterday morning, Jennie Foley, was found in a semi-conscious condition by her father three hours later. The girl is now in a serious condition, from the effects of the encounter. The burglar escaped with $10.50 of her savings, which Miss Foley pinned in the pocket of a summer coat. The Charlestown police are investigating. Failure of the girl to appear at breakfast prompted her father, Peter Foley, to go up to her room. He was shocked to find his daughter on the bed, her hands tied with a neck scarf, and a towel across her mouth. Miss Foley said last night that she attended a theatre with her chum on Wednesday night and returned shortly after eleven and went to her room. She soon fell asleep. She was awakened by footsteps and saw a man prowling about the bureau. She screamed and jumped out of bed, but the man pounced on her. After binding and gagging the girl, the man ran to the street. Mr. Foley remembers being awakened by some person going down stairs about 1 o'clock in the morning, but believed the noise came from the next house. He believes the man entered the house early in the evening and secreted himself in a vacant room or had a false key. Miss Foley describes the man as about 20 years of age, five feet tall, with a gold tooth, shabbily dressed, poor shoes and a can.

BILLERICA

The Progressive club of Billerica will hold an entertainment and reception in the parlors of Billerica's new hotel, "Bennett Hall," tonight. Daniel Congrove of Lowell, who was the progressive candidate for lieutenant governor in 1912, and the Rev. Mr. Drawbridge of Pepperell, and other out-of-town speakers have been secured. The club has rented a billiard and pool room in the annex of Bennett Hall, but the reception to-night will be held in the new hotel. Mr. Patrick Mahoney, manager of the Merrimack Clothing Company, is ill at his home at Brown's corner.

ST. MARGARET'S CHOIR

Members Were Entertained by Prof. and Mrs. Bond at the Lowell Conservatory of Music

The members of St. Margaret's choir were entertained last evening at the Lowell Conservatory of Music by Prof. Fred G. Bond, director of St. Margaret's choir, and Mrs. Hendricks Bond. During the evening, organ solos were played by Mr. Louis Guitabault, the church organist and Miss Katherine Hennessey sang several pleasing solos. Other soloists were Miss Murningham, contralto; Mrs. Hewing; Mr. Driscoll, bass; Prof. Bond; Cornelius Calnan, tenor; and Mrs. H. Bond, pianist. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a large bouquet to Mrs. Bond by the ladies of the choir, and a $5 gold piece to Mr. Bond by the male members of the choir. "Tony," Mr. Bond's Portuguese poodle, then amused the guests by several difficult tricks. Refreshments were served during the evening and the thirty-eight members of the choir present departed at midnight with expressions of gratitude for the excellent time provided.

Amateur Fencers to Meet

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—American amateur fencers who have cherished for several years the project of an international match said today that a provisional challenge had been sent to the English amateurs to visit this country and compete for an international trophy, similar to the Westchester polo cup or the Davis cup in lawn tennis. J. Sanford Saltus, long a patron of American fencers, is said to have offered to provide the trophy. Walter S. O'Connor, secretary of the Amateur Fencers League of America said it was hoped to make this match the beginning of a series of international affairs which would later include French and Italian amateurs.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Great Activity Manifested
in Lowell Societies

The regular bimonthly meeting of Lowell council, Royal Arcanum, took place last evening in the Odd Fellows temple on Middlesex street and was well attended. The usual routine matter was gone through and several applications received.

The feature of the evening was a contest of entertainment which followed the business meeting and which was highly enjoyed by the members. The "Honey Boys" were a great factor in the program and furnished some excellent numbers, as follows: "That's How I Need You," Andrew Doyle; "Going to Join the Minstrel Band," Joshua Chappell; "Imitations of Harry Lauder," Charles Carey; "Land of Golden Dreams," Joseph Shugart; "Monologues and songs," "I'm Going, Good-bye, I'm Gone," Edward Hanley; "The Rescued Moon," Charles Sadler; "Anale," "Dixie Log," Arthur Goring and company; pianist, Miss Anna Murphy.

The installation of the newly elected officers of Lowell council will be the principal business of the next meeting which is to be held on Jan. 15. Careful attention will be given to the preparations for this event that it may be a most successful one.

Lady Franklin Council, No. 17
At the regular meeting of Lady Franklin council, D. of L., the following officers were installed by Deputy Sister Armitage of Worcester:

Lucy Staples, V. C. Julia Wenz; A. C. Isora Hardy; A. V. C. Caroline Crawford; guide, Mary E. G. O. Carey Walker; I. G. Dora Hutchins; treasurer, Lulu Hutchins; financial secretary, Mary Foster; assistant recording secretary, Susie Nichols; trustee for three years, Ida Buchanan.

Unitarian Chapter, Eastern Star
The election of officers for the year

1913 was the principal business of a meeting of Puritan chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, which took place recently. The following were chosen:

Mrs. Sarah E. Gray, worthy matron; Mrs. George C. Denny, worthy patron; Mrs. C. Quiddie M. Everett, associate matron; Mrs. Willie Ellsworth Sargent, secretary; Mrs. Johanna C. Brown, treasurer; Mrs. Cora E. Grant, conductress; Mrs. Maria M. Goff, associate conductress; Mrs. Della A. Brigham, trustee for three years.

Ladd and Whitney Circle
The installation of officers of the Ladd and Whitney circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., formed an impressive event in Post 165 hall Wednesday night. The installing officer was Miss Abbie Ford.

Lowell Lodge, K. of P.
A regular meeting of Lowell lodge, Knights of Pythias, was held last night with a good attendance of the members. The usual routine business was transacted. Grand Chancellor B. W. C. Eddy and Grand Officer George H. F. Knight were guests of the council and they addressed the members. Representatives of S. H. Hines lodge were also present. A chicken pie supper and entertainment was enjoyed.

Elgin Lodge, N. E. O. P.
Elgin lodge, No. 164, N. E. O. P., met last night in regular session in Veritas hall, Branch street, and transacted the usual routine business. The reports of the financial secretary and the treasurer were read and showed that the lodge is in a flourishing condition financially. Preparations were also made for the installation of officers and the installation banquet to be held at the next meeting on Jan. 15.

Pawtucketville Social Club
The Pawtucketville Social club's regular meeting was held last night and the new board of officers were installed into office. They are as follows: President, Damasse Ledoux; vice president, Octave Champagne; secretary, E. N. Gendron; assistant secretary, Albert Lemay; treasurer, Frederic Theriault; assistant treasurer, A. P. Dragon; and sergeant-at-arms, Frank Brassard. The installing officer was Albert Hamel, who was assisted by Henri W. Allard.

CHANCE GETS RELEASE

New York Has Right to Manager

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The legal right of the New York American league club to sign Frank Chance as manager for this year was established yesterday afternoon, when President Frank J. Farrell received the formal release papers from President August Hermann of the Cincinnati National league club.

Last Friday Mr. Farrell was notified by President Johnson of the American league that Mr. Hermann, having secured waivers on Chance from all National league clubs, was ready to make the transfer. Mr. Farrell accordingly mailed a check for $1500 to President Hermann, which was duly acknowledged, and thereupon the meeting between Farrell and Chance in Chicago next Tuesday, announced yesterday was arranged. The receipt of Chance's release officially confirmed the deal, and for the first time gave the New York club in clear title to the services of the former manager of the Chicago Nationals.

TWINS FOR SECOND TIME

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 3.—For the second time within a year yesterday, twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Klemm, 1363 Twenty-third street. Mr. Klemm takes occasion to express his contentment for the high cost of living, while he passes the latest batch of cigars among his friends.

On Jan. 13, 1912, twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Klemm. They now are in the best of health. Yesterday the stork brought two seven-pound boys and Mrs. Klemm is expected by physicians to show no ill effects from his visit.

This week is "Quarter Week" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

BOYS ARE WELL TRAINED

Moriarty and Brusso are Ready for Battle

Tonight Jimmy Moriarty of this city and Noah Brusso of Woonsocket, R. I., will meet in the main bout at the Lowell Social and Athletic club and both report that they are in perfect shape. Each has put in considerable work getting in condition for the bout for both realize that they are up against a tough proposition. They are scheduled to meet for 12 rounds.

Tommy Doyle of Lowell and Battling Carroll of Lawrence are the "nominees" for the semi-final and they, too, are in fine fettle for their number. Doyle is a very lively youngster and is bound to make the battle from town to town at a fast pace. His many friends feel that owing to his excellent exhibition against Jyers at the club recently that he will win tonight's match. Doyle and Carroll are listed to work eight rounds. The preliminaries are stellar attractions and ought to furnish considerable amusement to the first time spectators.

Young Halpin of the Aik will exchange greetings with Kid Dunn from Centralville. These are speed merchants and both have trained hard for the meeting. The other well known bouts are between Young Brown and Kid Smith, both from Flat. The meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock.

FUNERALS

FULLER—The funeral services of Hattie Ruth Fuller, youngest daughter of Leroy F. Fuller and the late Hattie F. Fuller, were held Wednesday afternoon in the Edgemoor cemetery chapel and were largely attended. Rev. Forrester A. Macdonald, pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist church, officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Charles C. Martin and Mrs. Harry Sheldon. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among which were the following: Large pillow, inscribed "My Baby" from her father; pillow from her grandmother; spray, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thomas; Mrs. J. A. St. John; George Lees and Joseph C. Jasper, from the Fifth Street Baptist church; and Miss Sadie Tighe. The burial was in the family lot in Westview cemetery, where the committal service was read by Rev. Macdonald. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

McRUGH—The funeral of Mary A. McRugh took place Wednesday afternoon from the undertaking rooms of John J. O'Connell and was largely attended. Funeral services were held at St. Peter's church at 2 o'clock. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Undertaker John J. O'Connell had charge of the funeral arrangements.

DOZOIS—The funeral of Oscar Dozois took place yesterday from his home, 64 Butterfield street. Solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock by Rev. Guillaume Quillette, O. M. I., who was assisted by Rev. Charles Audiot, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Jerome Chisholm, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. The choir was under the direction of Mr. Frank Bonclerc. Mrs. Joseph A. Bernard presiding at the organ. The bearers were Hector, Alexandre, Philippe, Emile and Leopold Dozois and Brunau Comtois. The delegation from the Fraternal Order of Eagles was composed of the following: John St. Jean, George Bernard, Arthur Bourgeois and David J. Hackett. Among the flowers were: Willow with inscription "Oscar," St. Irfold Comtois; cross on base inscribed "Friend"; spray, Hubert Maynard; pillow, Fraternal Order of Eagles; spray, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hyde. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery where the committal prayers were read at the grave by Rev. Charles Audiot, O. M. I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Amadeo Archambault.

Live Wires Won Over Roman Quillets in the Reine-Cartridge League—Other Games

The Invincibles and Tigers of the Concord league played a double header on the alleys last night. The Invincibles won all four points in the first game but were able to capture only one in the second event. In the first game Teague of the Invincibles was high man with a total of 297 while in the second contest French of the Tigers carried off the honors by bowling 305. Cole's single of 117 was the highest made during the evening.

The St. Paul's M. E. team won three points from the Highland M. E. quintet in a game in the Barre-league series on the Crescent alleys. Burr of the winning team had the high triple while he and Leach were tied for high singles.

The game between the Live Wires and Roman of the Reine-Cartridge league resulted in a victory for the former team which won all four points. The scores were comparatively low, Coughlin with 273 for a triple being high man.

The Buffers won three points from the Packers of the Concord bowling league Wednesday Valley lodge won four points from Integrity lodge in the I. O. O. F. M. U. league and the contest between the Weaver Room and Repair Shop teams of the Hamilton mills resulted in a victory for the Weaver Room team. The scores:

THE NEW ORDINANCE

Important Sections That Are Now Operative

The new ordinance recently adopted by the city council and prescribing methods of accounting and defining the duties of the city auditor and city treasurer has become operative, in its entirety.

When the ordinance was passed it was too late in the year to put it into operation and some of the principal sections, now operative, are as follows:

Section 13. The city treasurer shall demand payment in writing of all accounts due the city and in case any such accounts remain unpaid at the expiration of two months after such demand, the city treasurer shall report the same to the city collector, who shall report to the proper legal methods for collection.

Section 25. Every city official shall present to the city auditor on or before the tenth day of January in each year, certified accounts of all sums due and unpaid for services rendered or labor performed by them, or under their direction, or for materials furnished, for or on account of the city during the fiscal year ending on the thirty-first day of December.

Section 26. Departments shall present to the city auditor on the tenth day of January, in each year, a statement of all uncompleted contracts made by them, with the probable amounts to become due thereunder, as well as the same can be obtained or ascertained, and also a statement of any purchases made by them for or on account of the city, for which no account has been rendered, together with the reasons for the neglect to present said statement.

Section 27. All bills for labor, material, and assessments, except taxes, shall be made in triplicate form, the original and duplicate to be left with the city auditor, and a list to be furnished by the commissioner of finance, the triplicate to be retained by the department issuing the bill. The city auditor shall record such bills and give them to the city treasurer and charge him with the collection of same.

Section 28. No official or employee of any department shall give a receipt to any person or persons for money collected. All accounts must be paid to the treasury department, as the city treasurer and city collector is the only authorized person to receive money for the city. All bills paid the city must have the stamp of that department.

Section 29. All requisitions for material and supplies must be presented to the auditor's department for approval before the final order is given to furnish the same, and a list to show the total amount of the contract and the departments to be supplied. No requisition shall be approved by the auditor unless the appropriation is sufficient to cover the same.

Section 30. The following marriage intentions have been registered at the city clerk's office since the last were published:

Jan. 1—Benjamin Wiesburg, 23, tailor, 56 Ware street, and Sadie Goldman, 12, at home, 90 Lincoln street.

Jan. 2—James H. Lamoureux, 25, mule spinner, 115 Allen street, and Marie A. Fortin, 24, housewife, 145 Moody street.

Jan. 3—James H. Lamoureux, 25, mule spinner, 115 Allen street, and Josephine Hebert, 22, housewife, 35 Essex street.

Jan. 4—James H. Lamoureux, 25, mule spinner, 115 Allen street, and Sarah E. Higgins, 27, housewife, 419 Adams street.

MANY CAMPS ENTERED

Cottages on Boulevard Broken into by Tramps

Many camps on the boulevard side of the river have been broken into and robbed lately, but most of the breaks were evidently made by tramps who entered the places more for the purpose of cooking meals and sleeping than stealing anything, but a few days ago the camp of Harry Osgood of this city was entered and a valuable phonograph stolen.

Chief Benjamin Lawrence, of the Tungsboro police, has been investigating the different breaks, but the persons who entered the camps left no clue behind them. Mr. Lawrence is keeping tabs on the camps and is in hopes that he will succeed in capturing one or more of the offenders before long.

Reports have also reached the local police station that breaks have been made in camps along the banks of the Concord river in Billerica and on the Merrimack river in the vicinity of Glen Feldon.

Both Sides Claim Victory
LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 2.—The striking textile workers and their employers alike have signified their intention to end the strike this afternoon. Both sides claim a victory. Should the strikers ratify the proposals they will return to work under the schedule of wages that has prevailed in the mills since the American Federation of Labor called off the strike a month ago. The new schedule increases wages from 10 to 15 per cent.

To Aid Sufferers of Tuberculosis
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—To aid sufferers of pulmonary tuberculosis in the United States by newly reported discoveries in Germany for the cure of the disease, Senator Gore today introduced a resolution calling upon the president to send to congress any information on the subject gathered by consular officers in Germany.

Three Boys Drowned
OLIVET, Mich., Jan. 3.—While playing hockey on Pine Lake, near here, yesterday, three boys broke through thin ice and were drowned, in spite of heroic efforts by companions to rescue them.

The dead are George Dewey, 14; Clark Morgan, 12, and Stanley Lansborough, 16.

A SMOKELESS POWER PLANT

The Government Sets Example in Washington, by Attempting to Combat Nuisance

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Setting the good example of operating its own power plant smokelessly in a city that is attempting to combat the nuisance, the United States Bureau of Mines is out with the statement that the smoke of cities can be largely reduced and perhaps entirely prevented. The power plant is connected with the experimental station of the bureau of mines, Pittsburgh, Pa., and it has been conducted without objectionable smoke for more than two years.

The bureau's report, made public today, destroys the popular notion that smoke may be lessened by the use of a so-called "smoke consumer," some special device, which if placed in the stack or in the smoke passages, will in some way consume the smoke. Samuel B. Flagg, engineer in charge of the smoke investigations, declares that although such a method may not be an impossibility, it is impractical. Smoke, he says, is caused by the flames from the coal coming into contact with the cool surfaces of a boiler. As an illustration, he places a saucer in the flame of a candle, and the bottom of the saucer will be covered with smoke. Hold the saucer just above the flame and there will be no smoke. Coal can be burned smokelessly, Flagg insists, if you give the coal the proper chance to burn. That is all there is to it.

The bureau of mines is charged with conducting tests to increase the efficiency with which the fuels purchased by the government are used, and incidentally it has found that federal buildings throughout the country are not only wasting coal but are adding to the smoke nuisance of the cities.

This led to taking up an investigation of this troublesome problem.

It was discovered by Engineer Flagg that no two cities in the country were attacking the problem from the same angle, and he soon came to the conclusion that many of them were wrong and were wasting their efforts. He found drastic ordinances in some municipalities that could only serve to make the citizens fight them; he found in other cities laws that could not possibly be enforced. As a result of his investigation, he declares that the most progress can be made in cities by the authorities insisting that in all new buildings furnaces shall be installed that are absolutely smokeless. In his report he quotes a number of the different smoke ordinances, explains where they are good and bad, and builds up a series of ordinances that might prove of value to municipalities of various sizes.

Mr. Flagg says: "It is quite certain that the greatest advances in smoke abatement in our cities have come in the past and must come in the future, through the organized effort of the city smoke inspection departments, supplemented by the active co-operation of citizens. A strong public sentiment in favor of smoke abatement is almost an absolute necessity. If satisfactory results are to be accomplished, the time may come when public sentiment against permitting the escape of dense smoke will be so strong that every plant owner or operator will feel obliged to prevent such escape of smoke, regardless of the existence of an ordinance or of his own personal feeling or inclinations. This condition does not prevail today in any city in the United States. Just as soon as each individual realizes that it will work to his own benefit to cooperate in that which will result in the greatest good to all, just so soon will the necessity for a smoke ordinance disappear. In the meantime, however, or until the present methods of burning bituminous coal are radically changed, such a necessity will exist in those localities where large quantities of such coal are consumed.

Under present conditions it is too often the case that buildings are so designed as to leave insufficient room for the proper equipment. Boilers are so placed that they cannot be properly cleaned or repaired, hence they are forced to operate in a crowded, confined, and smoke-producing conditions result. It is therefore important that the situation of the boiler plant and the providing of adequate space for it should receive consideration no less than the proper design of furnaces. Obviously, if accepted, these ends, persistent and systematic as well as scientifically correct methods must be adopted. In other words, organization is necessary, and the ordinance should specify not only how the work is to be organized, but also the necessary qualifications of those who are to be appointed to carry it out.

Satisfactory progress will seldom be made unless the organization is such that certain officials or employees give their entire attention to the work of smoke abatement and are held responsible for the results produced. If the installation of improperly designed furnaces is prevented, the policing duties of the inspectors will eventually be reduced to a minimum. The advisability of making this sort of provision is clearly shown in nearly any one of the cities where this protective work is not done. The fact that some of the newest plants have been so constructed that dense smoke is emitted a large part of the time, even though the firing may be done with a fair degree of care and intelligence. The smoke ordinance should therefore require that all houses and general buildings for all construction work on furnaces be submitted to the smoke inspector and be approved by him before work is started. If this protective feature is to be included, the smoke inspector must be an engineer, qualified by technical training and experience for all houses and general buildings. The ordinance should specify that these qualifications are required.

"The most important conclusion reached is that smoke abatement by ordinance can not hope to succeed unless supported by public sentiment and that a smoke ordinance should look to future prevention rather than to immediate prohibition. In other words, strict control of furnace construction offers much greater hope for smoke abatement than desultory imposition of severe penalties on the escape of 'dense' or 'black' smoke."

The report was issued by the bureau in entitled "Smoke Abatement and City Smoke Ordinances." Copies may be had by these interested writers to the director of the bureau of mines, Washington, D. C.

Drug Clerk Pleads Guilty, Dissension in Wellesley Church

PORTLAND Me., Jan. 3.—John M. Lavin, a drug clerk who says his home is in Leominster, Mass., pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy in the police court yesterday. Lavin, who is but twenty-three, admits that he is the husband of three women. "I don't expect to get bail and am not worrying about it," he said as he was led from the court room to the jail. Judge Merrill held him in $1000 bond for the grand jury.

Ernest E. Cross of South Portland, the complainant in the case, says that when Lavin married his daughter Edith, he had two other wives. The first he is alleged to have married was Bella M. Welber of Bethel, Me. Miss Olivia Canney of Leominster was the second wife of Lavin, according to the complainant.

Next Saturday is "Quarter Day" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

Second in Billiard League Standing
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Stanley Knadul of Chicago, defeated Charles McCourt of Pittsburgh, 10 to 12 in the opening game of the Pittsburgh series with Chicago here in the play for the championship of the Three Cushton Billiard League.

The victory put Chicago in second place and reduced Pittsburgh's lead. The game went 72 innings. Knadul had a high run of 7. McCourt's high run was 8.

SIMPLE WAY TO BANISH HEMORRHOIDS

DISTRESS QUICKLY RELIEVED AND THIS MOST PERSISTENT DISEASE CONQUERED

Why should you suffer longer, when at every druggist's of consequence in Lowell and vicinity you can secure a physician's home treatment for hemorrhoids or Piles (that has been wonderfully successful in practice and that is highly recommended by physicians and pharmacists)?

This effective process is known as ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT and the instructions are so easy to follow that the disease can be privately and quickly be overcome right in your own home.

The ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT consists of three separate formulae, all put up in one package. In one box you will find suppositories; in another an ointment; and in still another a box of tablets to be taken internally. Extra boxes of each can be obtained at 50 cents.

Each of these formulae serves its purpose perfectly and the result is prompt relief, followed by complete disappearance of the distressing disease or your money back.

Bear in mind that the ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT is a complete one! It has been used for years in the practice of many physicians with remarkable success and is now offered direct to sufferers by pharmacists who know its value.

TO OUST THE PREACHER

Dissension in Wellesley Church

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—College and town church circles in Wellesley are torn asunder in the dissension that has developed in the Wellesley Episcopal church, centering about the Rev. Geo. Nattress, the rector.

At a meeting to be held next Thursday night an attempt will be made to oust the minister.

The meeting was scheduled for last night. Just as the congregation was about to assemble a reporter was discovered outside the church. In the excitement that followed the meeting was postponed for a week.

The "ousting committee," as it is commonly known among the townspeople, is headed by Dr. George C. Anthony. The trouble is declared to have been brewing for over a month.

A determined effort, according to members of the church, which is attended by Wellesley's fashionables, will be made to remove Dr. Nattress. On the other hand, his friends, who are many, declare such a thing will never happen. The minister is very popular in Wellesley and numbers among his friends many of the students there.

Over a month ago he was asked about the trouble, then beginning to brew. He declared the only reason he could see why the wardens were dissatisfied was that he had asked for a new house, equipped with a library, gymnasium and other things for the congregation. They thought, he said, that he was asking too much.

One Drowned; The Other Saved
THOMPSONVILLE, Conn., Jan. 3.—While crossing Ashuntuck brook on thin ice last night the ice broke and Alice Underwood, 6, was drowned, and her sister Ethel, 11, narrowly escaped a similar fate.

She was pulled out of the water in an unconscious condition. The girls were on their way to a store to buy candy for six other children in the family.

HOOPER SAVED SERIES

Jennings Lauds the Red Sox Outfielder

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—"If Harry Hooper had just one-half of Ty Cobb's aggressiveness he would be one of the greatest ball players ever seen on any diamond. In the field he is a marvel. As a thrower he has no superior and at the bat he needs only aggressiveness," said Huggie Jennings last night at the Congress hotel, where he was entertained by some Elks.

Jennings declared during his rambling talk on players in both leagues that the important play of the series was made by Hooper, and it was not the latter's famous catch in the final game.

In describing this play Jennings said: "In the first game with Wood pitching, Boston led 3 to 1 at the beginning of the ninth inning. Wood wobbled for a time, and the strain was evidently too much for him. The New York team started to hit the ball. There was a man on first and second and only one out.

"Meyers hit a savage double down the first base line. Naturally the man on second scored. It was a hit that should have scored the man from first, as it was a good double. Hooper came in at terrific speed, running at full speed. He made a one-hand stop of the ball that was a corker and with the same motion drove the ball on a line for home. The throw was perfect to Eddy. The New York runner had rounded third base and was well on his way home. McGraw, who is quick to figure throws, knew that the ball would beat out the runner and sent him back to third. The throw saved the series. McGraw figured there was only one out, and a score. Then Wood settled down and struck out the next two men.

"The slightest slip-up by Hooper, the least bit of bad direction or lack of speed to the ball and the score would have been tied on that play, and the lord only knows what would have happened. To my mind it was the best play of the series, although Hooper's catch in the final game was one of those catches you will hear about in years to come."

SENATOR BAILEY'S FINAL SPEECH

Attacked Principles of Initiative and Referendum in Address to Large Audience

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, long one of the picturesque figures and striking speakers of the United States senate, delivered yesterday before a crowded floor and galleries his final speech as a member of that body. Within a day or two his resignation will be laid before the senate and communicated to Gov. Colquhoun of Texas, his expectation being that R. M. Johnston of Houston will be named to fill out his term, which would expire March 1.

Senator Bailey's speech was an attack upon the principles of the initiative and referendum as institutions that would, if adopted, bring about the overthrow of the present system of American government. He declared that the schemes for direct legislation by the people would convert the United States from a republic into a democracy, and would give its control into "the hands of unskilled, the idle and the vicious."

An attack upon William F. Hearst, in the course of his speech in which he characterized Mr. Hearst as a "miserable dog" who had "hounded him" brought Senator Ashurst of Arizona to his feet. He attempted to answer this phase of Mr. Bailey's attack upon Hearst's newspapers and magazines but was stopped by the Texas senator with the remark that he "could make that reply outside."

Later Mr. Ashurst took the floor in his own right and in the course of his defense of the system of direct government, paid a tribute to Mr. Hearst, as a loyal American citizen.

Galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity and long lines of people waited in the corridors for an opportunity to hear the Texas' farewell address to the senate.

Senator Bailey spoke for four hours. As he concluded a wave of applause swept through the galleries. President-elect Wilson, although quoted liberally by Senator Bailey in defense of his declaration that direct legislation is not in accord with the principle of American government, received only commutation from the Texas senator.

"If the man we have elected president of the United States gives the country a sane and satisfactory administration," he declared, "the republican party will never nominate another candidate for the presidency."

"Why should you?" he continued, advancing toward the republican side of the chamber. "You didn't carry but two states this year, and those two of the smallest. The contest four years from now will be between us and the Rooseveltians. He (Roosevelt) will take some more, but thank God they will be the kind we can afford to lose."

"Our conflict is with Roosevelt. If our president believes he can take the radical vote away from Roosevelt, he is mistaken. The only man who can do that, and he has not succeeded well, is Eugene V. Debs. He is the only man who can out-Roosevelt Roosevelt in attracting the radical vote. What the democratic party needs is not the radical but the democratic."

Much of Senator Bailey's speech was devoted to excerpts and quotations from the writings of men who organized and administered the early years of the American government; and to students who had in later years discussed the effects of direct legislation upon its principles. From the former he drew what he said was unquestionable proof that the United States began as a representative government and not a democracy of direct legislation. From the latter, among whom was Gov. Wilson, he quoted to show that the opinion of students was that the people were not so well qualified to legislate as were seasoned men selected by them, who framed their legislation in deliberative assembly.

At one point Senator Bailey produced a book of 208 pages, which he said represented the 32 questions submitted to the direct vote of the people of Oregon in one year.

"Now, honor bright," he said, "how many citizens do you suppose there are who studied those questions? How many understood them when they did study them? I do not mean to reflect on the intelligence of the people when I say they could not understand, with the opportunity given to study them, I could not do it myself."

He declared that in Switzerland the people had become disgusted with the constant necessity of voting on questions of government and had gradually refused to go to the polls. A compulsory voting law, he said, had not succeeded, and they had finally determined to pay voters.

Senator Bailey declared that in states where constitutional amendments had been submitted to the people, but a small proportion of the citizens voted upon them. In Wisconsin, he said, it ran as low as from 24 to 38 per cent.

Senator Ashurst, answering Senator Bailey, declared that the percentage of people who voted on public questions in the states where direct legislation was attempted, was fully as great as the percentage of United States senators "sworn and paid to vote on legislation" who voted on the majority of the subjects before the senate.

Senator Ashurst, in his defense of Mr. Hearst, declared that his name was associated with the success of many projects to promote the happiness of the people and the perpetuity of American institutions, and declared that he was a "firm friend, a loving husband and a faithful father."

"More than that I need not say; less than that I could not say," he added.

SLOWNESS SAVED LIFE

Boy Saw Companions Go Through Ice

ASHLAND, Jan. 3.—Exulting in their superior skill at the "running slide" on the ice of the mill pond here yesterday, John Parker, 12, and his chum, Francis Murray, 10, far out-distanced a much slower companion. Despite his best efforts, they kept far ahead of him, sliding over the ice.

His slowness saved his life.

Suddenly, with a scream of terror, John shot through the thin ice, which cracked in all directions around him.

KILLED BY AUTO TRUCK

Woman Crushed Under Wheels of Machine

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Agnes McDonald, 50 years old, a widow, who boarded at a house on Pine Hill street, Quincy, was struck last night by an auto truck, owned by Henry L. Kincade of Quincy and driven by John Russell of 65 Gay street, Quincy, and so badly injured that she died soon after arrival at the Quincy hospital.

Did Not See Woman

Russell told the police that he was proceeding with the truck along Newport avenue, near South Central street, Wollaston, going in the direction of Quincy, at 5.30 last night. The street was badly lighted, and he judged he was going about 12 miles an hour.

He did not see the woman until the right midguard of the truck struck her in the stomach, knocking her down, the front wheels passing over her body.

When he saw the woman, he said, she was standing on the side of the street, about three feet to the left of the street car tracks, and almost directly in front of the truck. He stopped the machine at once and with his helper, John Warner, of Penn street, Quincy, jumped to the woman's assistance, pulling her from underneath the auto. Russell boarded a passing trolley car and summoned a doctor.

In the meantime Warner telephoned the Quincy hospital and the woman rushed to the hospital, where she died at 8 o'clock.

The woman is said to have a sister, a Mrs. Dugan, living in Boston, and a brother and sister living in Cape Breton.

Russell went to the Quincy police station and told his story of the accident. He was booked on a charge of manslaughter, bail being fixed at $2000. Bail was furnished.

SOME UNIQUE ACCIDENTS

Man Fell One Foot and Broke Leg

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Falling a foot, Michael Cashin, 31 years old of 9 Gratton street, employed as a laborer at the Fore River shipyards, Quincy, broke his right leg above the knee. He was walking along a staging on an oil boat under construction in the yard yesterday afternoon. He tripped over a piece of hose and fell to the deck.

Fell 20 Feet, Not Hurt

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—While working on the second crossarm of a pole located at Spear and Canal street, Quincy, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Daniel R. McKenzie, a lineman employed by the Quincy Electric Light and Power company, lost his balance and fell to the street, a distance of over 20 feet.

He was taken to the office of Dr. George M. Sheahan, School street, in the police ambulance and later to his home. He received slight bruises on his head and back.

GASTON FOR CABINET

Boston Man is Offered Place by Wilson

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Col. William A. Gaston, president of the National Shawmut bank, has been picked for the secretaryship of the navy by Gov. Wilson, according to information which reached Boston from New York last night.

Despite stories to the contrary, cabinet making has been going on to quite an extent at various conferences held in New York and New Jersey, and it is out of these gatherings the story has come.

The matter under discussion has been the New England situation, with special reference to Massachusetts, and the name of Col. Gaston has been the solitary one which has not provoked a turmoil.

The sentiment in Massachusetts was so agreeable to him that his selection came at first hand.

This will require his retirement from the presidency of the bank which he now holds, and from a number of business interests with which he is affiliated, and it will mean a considerable sacrifice. For that reason the possibility was discussed last night as to whether after all he would care to break these relations for even a cabinet position.

Inasmuch as it is more than likely this will be the only cabinet position offered to Massachusetts democrats, it is felt the chance at recognition is too good a one to let slip by.

EXPRESS JUMPS SWITCH

Passengers Get Shaking Up

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—The Fitchburg division of the Boston and Maine railroad was tied up several hours last night, when the hour-late Boston-bound train from Rutland, Vt., struck a switch and jumped the track, carrying a milk car with it. Near the West Cambridge station, about 6 p. m. The train service was diverted from the main line to the Watertown branch.

The wrecked train was in charge of Conductor A. S. Jones and Engineer E. K. Jarvis. The train was proceeding slowly over the switches or over a grade when the accident occurred. The passengers escaped with a violent jolting.

The Maid of the New Year Will be Hipless and Curveless, and Will Not Resemble a Question Mark, Says the Fashion "Plater"

SYMPHONY IN GRAY

The maid of 1913 will surely be curveless. She will not resemble in outline an hourglass or a question mark, and she will not appear to be walking in front of herself. What she will appear to be is a sort of moving figure 1, with an oblique line being due to the tilt of her hat.

This is the advance by from a convention of dressmakers held recently to decide what will be what in fashion.

Skirts, say these arbiters of dress, will be straight, and to prevent accident to the wearer of attenuated lines there will be a slash at the bottom of the skirt a little toward the side of the front.

Jackets, too, are to be straight, and from the editorial viewpoint there are to be no such things as hips. Waistcoats will be much in evidence on coats, and they will be built of contrasting fabrics. For spring, the fancy suit will be trimmed with hand-made ornaments not unlike those seen on the imported evening and afternoon dresses now being worn.

The clever designers have evolved a new belt fastening for these suits. Instead of the bare line of other years the back of the skirt at the waist line is to be attractively covered with hand-made ornaments. We have become accustomed to these adornments on coats at the high empire waist line, but they are an entirely new departure on skirts.

In spring materials few gorges will be shown. Bedford cords and wool corduroys will supplant the favorite of several seasons. The smart spring colors are to be tan, from the champagne to the leather shades; navy blue, of course, and the softest tints of taupe.

In topsuits the spring fancy seems to turn to hipless and checks. The leader so far is a new model of the rah-rah coat, forty-six inches long, fashioned from cream goods with a tan stripe, the sleeves and collar being trimmed with reverses of stripes. There are few plain materials to be found in the new topcoats.

These are the straws that point the modish way to women who must prepare early for the spring season, but most of us have hardly settled down to the wearing of our winter gowns and are not disturbing ourselves unduly about what is to come.

We are, though, interested in the new sleeve which rumor says is to be full. The fashion people have been trying without success to push fullness into mannequins for a long time, but it looks as though their efforts were to meet with acceptance the coming season.

One of the gowns in the cut introduces the new sleeve, a leg or mutton

to the wearing of our winter gowns and are not disturbing ourselves unduly about what is to come.

Some of the designers, tired of button trimmings, are attempting to substitute for them lacings of cord on skirts, as well as on jackets. These lacings are not new features on house gowns and negligees, but they are "something different" applied to skirts and jackets. The lacings are used, as one may imagine, for slashings at the bottom of skirts and at the sides and backs of coats.

When the cord is not desired a novel effect may be introduced with heavy silk tassels in a harpizing shade when the suit is of a somber tone. It is surprising that women have not thought of this enticing touch before. However, it requires a knowing eye to place these tassels correctly. On a suit of brown corduroy tassels were placed on the narrow band of skirt that served as a collar. As if to accentuate their importance as an integral part of the costume similar tassels finished the drapings of the corduroy muff, which was edged with fur.

Drapery will continue in vogue, and a smart example of its effectiveness is seen in one of the costumes pictured, of black crape, with both skirt and bodice much bedraped. The telling color touch is in the deep toned strip of Persian embroidery, veiled by chiffon, which crosses the bodice front. Oriental embroidery in dull shades of rose and blue is used on the gown of pale gray satin in combination with wool goods in the same delicate shade. Gray chiffon forms the vest and sleeves.

MANSON STILL GUARDED

Officers Surround the Rockefeller Residence

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Notwithstanding reports from Brunswick, Ga., that William Rockefeller, whose matrimony is sought by the Pope committee, had sailed from Jekyll Island Tuesday on a chartered steamer for a secret destination, the cordon of police servants around his Fifth avenue mansion did not relax their vigilance today. Capt. H. Biddell, sergeant-at-arms in the house of representatives, his officers and private detectives to the number of 16 are investing into the report of Mr. Rockefeller's sailing, but in the meanwhile are hopeful that they have the millionaire bottled up in his home here.

"If the report of Mr. Rockefeller's presence at Jekyll recently is true," Mr. Biddell said today, "I will send my men there at once. About six weeks ago, some of my men were down there and subsequently James J. Hill, our only duty under the authority of the house of representatives is to serve Mr. Rockefeller personally and that we are bound to do, if we are to remain here all winter."

The previous servants were still hopeful today that the house of representatives would authorize them to enter Mr. Rockefeller's home by force if necessary and leave him with the subpoena should they find him there.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. John H. Pickup and Miss Alice H. Whitson were united in marriage Jan. 1 at the home of the bride, 58 Marlborough street. The officiating clergyman being Rev. A. E. Macdonald. They

BANQUET WAS HELD

"Manche de Lignes" Had Splendid Time

Club "Manche de Lignes," a recently organized club held a meeting at the home of Zephyr Rousset, 51 Fourth avenue, yesterday afternoon. The affair consisted of a brief business meeting and a dainty repast, the piece de resistance being roast turkey and fennel. The feature of the afternoon was the election of officers which resulted as follows:

Zephyr Rousset, president; Ovide Boile, secretary; Elie Boile, treasurer; and Ernest J. Dupont, captain. The same were installed into office immediately after the election, the installing officer being Louis Mercier.

At the close of the meeting all members, which by the way are not very numerous, sat down to a bountiful repast and did honor to the menu which was excellent. At the conclusion of the meal speeches were in order and the toastmaster was J. E. Morin, who presided in a very satisfactory manner. Among the speakers were the newly elected officers and Mr. William Rousset.

The other members of the organization are Arthur Delisle, Isidore Bessal, Wilfrid Bleuin and George D. Ward.

CUT FOR 20,000 EMPLOYEES

City Council of Chicago Reduces Pay 20 Per Cent on All but the High Officials

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Twenty thousand city employees suffered a cut of 20 per cent in their salaries by the action of the city council at a special meeting yesterday. Practically every employee of the municipality is affected.

Mayor Harrison, whose salary, like those of a few others in high authority, was not affected, stated that he would voluntarily remit 20 per cent of his pay.

The cut was decided upon as the only solution of a budget estimate $4,500,000 greater than the revenue of the city. The reduction was bitterly opposed. An attempt to make up the deficit from the fund obtained as the city's share of the profits of the street car companies was defeated.

The legislature will be asked to pass laws by which the city's income may be increased. If this is obtained it is planned to reimburse employees for wages withheld. The budget for 1913 calls for $25,504,193.

Miss Edwina Viers of Holyoke is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Alexander of White street.

WHIST AND SOCIAL TIME Pleased Many at St. Columba's Rectory

The tabernacle society of St. Columba's church in Pawtucketville, conducted to most enjoyable whist party and social last evening in the rectory and the affair attracted a large number of patrons.

The director of the social was Mrs. Martha Walsh and she was assisted by the following committee: President, Miss Mary Holmes; vice-president, Miss Katherine McDermott; secretary, Miss Jennie Dunfer; and treasurer, Miss Margaret Cassidy.

This was one of the most successful of all the weekly whist parties which have taken place at the rectory since early in the fall, the financial realization of which will go to increase the building fund of the parish.

The program of the evening was excellent and was due to the effort of Mr. Michael Lynch, who had charge of that feature of the entertainment. A delightful concert was given by the orchestra of the Pawtucket school, under the direction of William McDonald.

The body is composed of the following members: William McDonald, pianist; Misses Theresa McDermott and Mabel Armstrong, mandolinists; and Miss Helen Reagan and Leo Bissonette, violinists.

Whist was enjoyed and the winners of the competition were presented suitable prizes. Then the following numbers pleased the gathering: Concert by the Pawtucket school orchestra; reading, Miss Ella Prazor; song, Miss Frances Tighe and remarks by Rev. John A. Deagan, pastor of St. Columba's parish.

AMUSEMENT NOTES Lowell Opera House

"The Angelus" was presented at the Opera House last evening before a rather small, but very appreciative audience. The play is one worthy of a packed house, for it portrays a most interesting and instructive story of the benevolence and right-mindedness of a parish priest, and how by his kindly advice and assistance he is respected by all residents of his town, regardless of their religious affiliations.

Arriving at the parish church the priest, "Fr. O'Brien," installs a large bell, and he ordered that it be sounded at certain hours during the day. The ringing of the Angelus, he explained, was to call the attention of his flock to the fact that part of the day should be spent in thanksgiving and ever after at the sound of the bell, all heads would bow in prayer. He impressed this service upon his congregation at the start and during the progress of the play last evening the impression made was many times demonstrated. Quirella would stop, or would be interrupted.

Raymond Hitchcock, who will appear at the Opera House Tuesday, Jan. 14, is said to have added much to his popularity as a comedian in his present vehicle, "The Red Widow," which has enjoyed phenomenal prosperity since it was first produced. His role of Cicerio, a Russian, in which he is joined by Russian nihilists, especially one alluring young woman, is declared to fit him well.

Kelly's Theatrical company of comedy players will prove one of the season's best combinations, at the Keith theatre next week. "The Second Generation" is the title of the remarkably funny Celtic sketch, which will be the offering. Seven other prime plays are counted upon. The present week's bill, which includes such good things as Luchini's dogs, Four Laurel Girls, Pealson & Giffie, Eddie Howard, Church sisters, Nevine & Erwood and the Cavanna duo.

WHIST AND SOCIAL TIME Pleased Many at St. Columba's Rectory

The tabernacle society of St. Columba's church in Pawtucketville, conducted to most enjoyable whist party and social last evening in the rectory and the affair attracted a large number of patrons.

The director of the social was Mrs. Martha Walsh and she was assisted by the following committee: President, Miss Mary Holmes; vice-president, Miss Katherine McDermott; secretary, Miss Jennie Dunfer; and treasurer, Miss Margaret Cassidy.

This was one of the most successful of all the weekly whist parties which have taken place at the rectory since early in the fall, the financial realization of which will go to increase the building fund of the parish.

The program of the evening was excellent and was due to the effort of Mr. Michael Lynch, who had charge of that feature of the entertainment. A delightful concert was given by the orchestra of the Pawtucket school, under the direction of William McDonald.

The body is composed of the following members: William McDonald, pianist; Misses Theresa McDermott and Mabel Armstrong, mandolinists; and Miss Helen Reagan and Leo Bissonette, violinists.

Whist was enjoyed and the winners of the competition were presented suitable prizes. Then the following numbers pleased the gathering: Concert by the Pawtucket school orchestra; reading, Miss Ella Prazor; song, Miss Frances Tighe and remarks by Rev. John A. Deagan, pastor of St. Columba's parish.

AMUSEMENT NOTES Lowell Opera House

"The Angelus" was presented at the Opera House last evening before a rather small, but very appreciative audience. The play is one worthy of a packed house, for it portrays a most interesting and instructive story of the benevolence and right-mindedness of a parish priest, and how by his kindly advice and assistance he is respected by all residents of his town, regardless of their religious affiliations.

Arriving at the parish church the priest, "Fr. O'Brien," installs a large bell, and he ordered that it be sounded at certain hours during the day. The ringing of the Angelus, he explained, was to call the attention of his flock to the fact that part of the day should be spent in thanksgiving and ever after at the sound of the bell, all heads would bow in prayer. He impressed this service upon his congregation at the start and during the progress of the play last evening the impression made was many times demonstrated. Quirella would stop, or would be interrupted.

Raymond Hitchcock, who will appear at the Opera House Tuesday, Jan. 14, is said to have added much to his popularity as a comedian in his present vehicle, "The Red Widow," which has enjoyed phenomenal prosperity since it was first produced. His role of Cicerio, a Russian, in which he is joined by Russian nihilists, especially one alluring young woman, is declared to fit him well.

Kelly's Theatrical company of comedy players will prove one of the season's best combinations, at the Keith theatre next week. "The Second Generation" is the title of the remarkably funny Celtic sketch, which will be the offering. Seven other prime plays are counted upon. The present week's bill, which includes such good things as Luchini's dogs, Four Laurel Girls, Pealson & Giffie, Eddie Howard, Church sisters, Nevine & Erwood and the Cavanna duo.

TERRIFIC WIND AND RAIN STORM

Swept the South Atlantic Coast—

Worked Havoc With Shipping and Destroyed Wires

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Fierce storms of extraordinary violence swept three separate portions of the country today paralyzing wire communication, doing much property damage and menacing shipping on the South Atlantic coast. One storm central in Virginia swept the Chesapeake bay and Hampton Roads and partially submerged the shipping section of the city of Newport News with water from the James river. The battleships of the Atlantic fleet anchored there and kept their moorings with difficulty but their launches and small boats were swamped in attempting landings. Large quantities of freight on the piers were swept into the sea; windows in large hotels at Old Point Comfort were blown in and the beaches about Virginia Capes were strewn with wreckage of small craft. Revenue cutters patrolling the capes expect to find loss of life.

For a time the cities of Newport News and Norfolk were cut off from communication and all along the coast territory as far south as Atlanta communication was interrupted. All schedules of sailings were demoralized at coast ports. All cities in the section reported destruction of property by the gale but no fatalities.

In the Middle West a high windstorm leveled houses between New York and Chicago and in the far western states of Washington and Oregon communication was partially paralyzed by another fierce gale.

Great Damage Caused

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The south Atlantic coast states today were in the grip of a terrific wind and rain storm which worked havoc with shipping and cut the cities of Norfolk and Newport News off from the outside world. All land wires leading out of these cities were destroyed. Before the last wire went down a telegraph operator in Newport News told his wife chief in Washington the gale was such that the water of the James river was surging up into the lower part of the city with the violence of a small tidal wave.

The navy wireless sent out unanswered calls for words of the ships of the Atlantic fleet gathering in Hampton Roads today, preparatory to sailing for the southern drill grounds. Great anxiety was felt for the torpedo boats and destroyers in so narrow a seaway as the Chesapeake.

Incomplete reports coming in while the storm was at its height, were that many oyster boats in the river and many other small craft had been sunk. The loss of life, if any, was not known then.

In this city the gale whipped down signs and trees but did no great damage. Telegraph and telephone wires were demoralized as far south as Atlanta.

CATTLE RAISER OF $90,000

Fierce Battle on Portuguese-Spanish Frontier—Civil Guard of Entire Province Called Out

VALENCA DO MINHO, Portugal, Jan. 3.—A daring band of smugglers on the Portuguese-Spanish frontier carried off $90,000 in cash today after a fierce battle with a cattle raiser and 40 of his herdsmen, in the course of which nine of the cowboys were killed and 14 severely wounded. Jose Murilhas, one of the best known cattle breeders in the province of Minho, had been for several weeks passing from fair to fair and had disposed of three herds of bulls. He then started for home with the Portuguese equivalent of $90,000 in notes and cash with him. He was guarded by 40 of his herdsmen.

Early this morning while he was passing close to the border between Portugal and Spain he was suddenly attacked by a large band of armed smugglers, who fired on his party from behind rocks and thickets. The herdsmen returned the fire but finally were forced to flee. They carried off Jose Murilhas, who had been seriously wounded, with them but left the whole of the money and 23 of their comrades on the field, nine dead, some fatally injured and the rest badly wounded. The civil guards of the entire province have been called out and are searching for the smugglers and the treasure, but no trace of them has yet been found.

BAIL OF $10,000 FOR EACH YEAR

Writ of Supersedeas Issued by U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Dynamite Case

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—A writ of supersedeas, staying execution of the sentences imposed upon the dynamite conspirators recently convicted at Indianapolis, was issued by the United States circuit court of appeals here today. Bail was based on the number of years which the prisoners had been sentenced to serve—$10,000 for each year. Thus Ryan's bail was fixed at $70,000. Those who received sentences of six years must furnish $50,000; four years, $40,000 and so on down to $10,000 for the one year sentences. According to defense lawyers, the court, Judges Seaman and Baker sitting, seemed most impressed by the extrajudicial feature of the arguments presented to them. The defense lawyers stated that money enough to admit all to bail would be forthcoming.

In Fall River—Report That Chas. H. Richardson, Lowell Man, Ended His Life

A dispatch has been received in this city stating that Medical Examiner Thomas F. Gunning has announced that the death of Charles H. Richardson, Jr., which occurred in Fall River last Saturday, was the result of strychnine poisoning. Mr. Richardson was superintendent of the Shore mills in that city.

The deceased is a son of Mr. Charles H. Richardson of Methuen street, Lowell and when a representative of the Sun called upon the latter this morning it was to learn that the father of the dead man had no knowledge of the affair other than that published in the press. Mr. Richardson senior did not appear to be in the best of health, and was unable to attend the funeral of his son last week. He is unwilling to believe reports contrary to the statement that his son died from natural causes.

That the death of Mr. Richardson, Jr., was due to apoplexy, was the substance of the report of the family physician, but the examination of Dr. Gunning seems to reveal the fact that the mill man died from the effects of strychnine. His father told the writer that the dead man has been away from Lowell for some years and that nothing was known here of any trouble that would cause him to commit suicide. The local relatives of the Fall River man are naturally very much broken up over this report of the medical examiner. The dispatch from Fall River alleges that Supt. Richardson had been despondent over alleged thefts from his mill for which arrests have already been made. The whole matter has caused a great sensation in Fall River. The despatch follows: Continued to page four

It is stated that the Turkish delegates in London have sent forthrightly worded despatches to the grand vizier in which they deplore the weakness of the instructions sent to them by the Ottoman government and decline to take on themselves the responsibility for the conclusion of a calamity.

HE DIED SUDDENLY

Wilfred D. Bowles Victim of Heart Failure

The many friends of Wilfred D. Bowles, an old and respected resident of this city, will be pained to learn of his death which occurred suddenly this morning at his home, 5 Vawley avenue, where deceased has lived since he arrived in Lowell 28 years ago.

Mr. Bowles who was 53 years and 13 days old, had been suffering from a severe cold, but his end was far from being expected. Last night he was feeling fine when he retired at his usual hour, but at 2:30 o'clock this morning he was suddenly seized with heart failure and passed away. Dr. Lathrop, the family physician was summoned, but his efforts to save the man's life proved in vain.

Deceased had lived in Lowell 28 years and always at the same place. He retired from work some three years ago and during the latter part of his life had been a constant attendant to his wife who survives him. He also leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Frank E. and Willis H. Bowles.

LAWRENCE ALDERMEN

Agree Upon Assignment of Departments

LAWRENCE, Jan. 3.—After next Monday it will be Aldermen John S. Todd, director of the department of public health and charities and Alderman Alfred Bradbury, director of the department of public buildings and parks.

The assignment of the aldermen-elect was tentatively agreed upon at a caucus of the municipal council of 1912 held yesterday afternoon in Mayor Seaman's office at city hall and was attended by all the members including the mayor, Aldermen Lynch and Hanagan and Alderman-elect Todd and Bradbury. Although the formal vote of assigning the members-elect cannot be passed until the new government is inaugurated on next Monday morning at 10 o'clock the purpose of deciding at this time was to enable the new councilmen an opportunity to consult with the present heads of the departments. Alderman Maloney and Alderman O'Brien, in order to get the benefit of their experience and become conversant with the affairs of the departments which they are to control for the next two years.

RESUME SOCCER GAMES

Teams of L. L. & D. Play Saturday

The present mild weather seems to give indication that the Lawrence, Lowell and District soccer football league will continue with the schedule after an interruption of two weeks due to the recent storms which made the fields unsuitable for play. Barring further expressions of the weather man's indisposition, the contests which had to be postponed on Christmas day and Saturday will be held tomorrow afternoon on the different athletic fields throughout the circuit.

Tomorrow afternoon, the Bunting club team of Lowell will close their season with Methuen as their opponents on the latter's field. In case of a victory for the locals they will jump up a notch in the standing of the league for it will put them one point ahead of the Methuen aggregation. Earlier in the soccer season, the Bunting fell down to the speed and skill of this eleven but Manager Flynn says that his team is at present considerably stronger than it was at that time and that the Methuen players will have to hustle some to carry away the laurels.

The following players are requested to meet in Merrimack square at 1 o'clock to take the cars which leave at 1:10: Birtwhistle, Smith, Mahan, Burrows, Hulse, Lane, Johnson, Cousin, Taylor, Mitchell, Clegg, Swift, Conliffe, Walker, Linesman, Woodcock. Referee: Houston.

The other league games which will be played on Saturday at the grounds of the first named team are the following: Manchester Blues vs. Lawrence Olympics. South Lawrence vs. Manchester United. Chas vs. Andover.

Smith's Sentence Commuted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Moved by the penitence of L. F. Smith, convicted of embezzling the funds of the First Worcester, N. Y. National bank, President Taft today commuted his five-year sentence to one year and one day, with allowances for good behavior. Smith pleaded guilty on June 22 at Birmingham, N. Another Junk Collector Purchased It Later and the Matter Was Reported to the Police

H. Golden, a junk collector, had a little experience which he says he will never forget, when after buying copper in West Centralville this afternoon, the same was stolen from his wagon and sold to another man of the same business. Golden later recognized his goods and after a few explanatory remarks on the part of purchaser No. 2, the matter was reported to the police.

Golden, it seems, was going through Lakeview avenue when someone shouted to him from a window. He looked up and the party in question motioned to him to go upstairs, which he did. A fine lot of copper was shown the junk collector and after a little talk the owner agreed to part with it for the sum of $110. The said amount was paid and Golden put the copper in his wagon. A few minutes later he says he was called into another house for more copper and when he came out he found that the first lot he purchased had disappeared. Later he met one of his compatriots, who had the junk in his wagon.

The latter tried to explain how he got the copper but his explanations did not work. Finally Sergt. Ryan was called on the case and to him the matter was explained thoroughly, that is Golden told his story of buying the material, while purchaser No. 2 also explained how he became the possessor of such a valuable treasure, saying that a middle-aged man had sold the goods to him. The police are now trying to locate who stole the copper.

Annual Meeting Held Last Night and Officers Elected—Other News of Interest

The board of trade of Tewksbury held its annual meeting last night in the town hall in the center. The affair was largely attended and the feature of the evening was the election of officers for the coming year. Considerable business was transacted and a committee was appointed to confer with the railroad officials for a trolley express through the village.

NO MORE CONSTIPATION IT'S ME FOR OLIVE TABLETS!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" and then a "bad breath"—a dull, tired, feeling—sick, headache—torpid liver and constipated bowels find relief, cure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.

"Every little Olive Tablet" has a movement all its own." See and see for box.

The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Dr. H. M. Larabee. The secretary's report was read and accepted and on account of the treasurer not being present his report will be read at the next meeting.

The following committee was appointed to confer with the officials of the Bay State Street Railway company as to the possibility of establishing a trolley express to the village: Arthur Waterman and William Stead.

The result of election of officers was as follows: Dr. H. M. Larabee, president; H. Lewis Farmer, vice president; Arthur Foster, secretary; Charles Kirtledge, treasurer; Dr. H. M. Larabee, H. Lewis Farmer, Arthur Foster, Charles Kirtledge, Carey Waterman, James Robinson, Albert Briggs and Walter Robinson, directors.

A rather witty incident occurred in Tewksbury Centre yesterday afternoon, when a man faced with a house door which had stolen a package of meat. The incident took place near the general store and was witnessed by a large crowd of onlookers, who were very much amused. At the close of the race the man was declared the winner, but not before he had used all kinds of tricks.

The man who hailed from Reading alighted from a Low-ell bound electric car and entered the general store. He left a small package weighing about two pounds and containing fresh meat, on the steps. When inside the store he inquired of the owner if he knew of any place where he could purchase small pigs. After receiving an answer in the negative, he bought a cigar and was enjoying a great smoke when shouts were heard on the outside. The smoker paid little attention to the excitement outdoors and puffed away at his stogie. Suddenly someone entered the store and informed those present that a package had been stolen from the steps and that the thief which was no other than a huge hound dog, was making good his escape with the package.

DR. H. M. LARABEE,
Pres. Board of Trade.

The man and dog would probably be still running if it had not been for the fact that an oncoming automobile came to the rescue of the one whom it was thought would lose the race. The motor vehicle carrying along the owner of the meat got ahead of the dog and when the latter came near the machine, the driver's whistle was blown repeatedly, which caused the animal to drop in panic and run into a nearby field.

The meat was recovered and the owner left the town on the next car for Reading, saying there was no law to prosecute dog thieves, but the best thing to do was to keep away from them.

The numerous residents of the town who were attracted to the scene by the man's shouts, had a great time over the incident while the race was on.

To a Convention

Mrs. J. Morrill of the Centre has received word that her son, Dr. Austin W. Morrill, formerly a resident of the town, and now of Phoenix, Ariz., is attending a convention of entomologists, which is being held in Cleveland, O. The doctor, who is the closest of the convention will deliver an address on entomological work in the state of Arizona.

Dr. Morrill was formerly in the employ of the United States government for many years, after graduating from the Massachusetts college of Agriculture at Amherst. A few years ago he accepted a lucrative position for the state of Arizona and severed his connection with the government to establish himself and family in the west. He has been very successful and is now known as one of the noted professors of entomology in the country.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Chicago, and Miss Marguerite Lee, the latter a teacher in the Moses Brown school in Providence, R. I., are the guests of their parents in the village.

Miss Miriam Wiggin, teacher at the library school is suffering with neuritis, in New Hampshire, where she went for the holidays.

Mr. Allen S. Haines, the town blacksmith, has made a record in his line of business, having single handed shod 28 horses in one day.

Miss Violet Lawson of Boston is the guest of Mrs. John Tuttle.

Mr. Thomas McCusker is greatly improving from the rheumatic shock he received a short time ago.

The name of Mr. M. Patten has been drawn for the jury list.

Messrs. Munroe Fuller and Paul Smith are kept very busy these days with their portable horse drawn sawing machine. The former has an air cooled machine, while the latter's is water cooled, and both claim theirs as the best.

Mr. W. A. Patten, who was laid up with a severe cold is able to be out again.

H. M. Larabee, the town physician, reports several cases of illness. However, there is no case of scarlet fever.

Box Party

The members of the Christian Endeavor society held a very enjoyable box party in the church vestry Wednesday night. The affair was largely attended and provided great pleasure, especially for the young folks who were quite numerous. The church was held for the benefit of the church and was very successful. An elaborate entertainment program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections as well as readings was rendered. The boxes taken in by the young people netted a substantial sum.

FOR SALISBURY BEACH

Bill to Exclude Lowell From Reservation

In connection with the maintenance of the Salisbury Beach reservation, Representative Jewett has prepared an amendment, which if passed, will have the effect of excluding Lowell from the reservation district, thereby exempting Lowell from the special tax. Lowell legislators will resist taxation under the Salisbury Reservation Act. The law creating Salisbury beach district as a reservation is entitled "An Act to Make Salisbury Beach a Public Reservation and to Establish the Salisbury Beach Reservation Commission."

The power of the commission is such that it may expend at its pleasure, make a return to the state treasurer of the amount expended, with the result that the state treasurer levies on the cities and towns included in the reservation. Section 3 of the act outlines the extent of the reservation, as follows:

"The jurisdiction and powers of said commission shall extend to and may be exercised in the cities of Newburyport, Haverhill, Lawrence and Lowell, and the towns of Salisbury, Amesbury, Merrimac, Methuen, Andover, North Andover, Haxford, Georgetown, Groveland and West Newbury. The said towns shall constitute the Salisbury Beach Reservation District."

Section 15 gives the state treasurer the duty of levying upon the different cities and towns each year, and is as follows:

"The amount of money required each year from each city and town of the Salisbury Beach Reservation District to meet the interest, bond requirements, and expenses aforesaid for each year, shall be estimated by the treasurer of the Commonwealth in accordance with the proportion determined as aforesaid, and shall be included in, and made a part of the sum charged to such city or town, and shall be assessed upon it in the apportionment and assessment of its annual state tax, and the treasurer shall annually notify each city and town of the amount of such assessment, and the same shall be paid by the city or town into the treasury of the Commonwealth at the time required for the payment, and as a part of its state tax."

Held Coffee Party

The coffee party at Grace church, last night, was well attended and was served under the direction of Mrs. George W. Randall, with Mrs. Charles N. Woodward at the head of the dining room. At 8 o'clock there was an entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Leon Green and Mrs. Bertha M. Abbott, consisting of songs and a reading illustrated by tableaux. Miss Ruth Crawford was the reader, the singers were Mrs. F. L. Roberts and Miss Esther M. Green, and the accompanist was Miss Chase, the church organist. The tableaux were quite beautiful, indicating true artistic talent in conception, in posing, and in costume.

The selections were as follows: "Beautiful Lady," from "The Pink Lady," Miss Nellie Snow. "Goin' Thru the Rye," Miss Gertrude Weinbeck and Mr. Roland Black. "Grandma's Memories," Mrs. William Green, Mrs. Elmer Trull, Mrs. Leon Gage, Miss Etta Dyon, Miss Bees Adams, Miss Bertha Abbott, Miss Ella Perham, Messrs. Willard Parker and Roland Black. "Daddy Dear," William Sherwell, Messrs. Elsie Dick and Nellie Snow. "Come Back to Erin," Mrs. Bessie Adams and Mr. Thos. Smith. "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," Miss Gertrude Weinbeck. "Ever of There," Miss Nellie Snow. "Love's Old, Sweet Song," Miss Margaret Smith and Loring Kew.

FELKER NOW GOVERNOR OF N. H.

Progressives Unite With Democrats and Put Democrat in Chair

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 3.—Thirty progressives, combining with the democrats in the legislature, last night elected Samuel D. Felker of Rochester, democrat, governor of New Hampshire on the first ballot taken. This fusion, resulted directly from the fight for speaker of the house, in which the republicans and democrats had been deadlocked, with the 29 but more voting solidly for their own candidate, William J. Britton of Wethersfield. Agree to Swap.

When vote after vote for speaker had been taken, the progressives, holding the balance of power, and the democrats agreed to a swap, by which Britton was to be elected speaker and the progressives were to turn their aid to Felker.

As a result, when the joint session last night came to a vote on governor, Felker won over Franklin Worcester of Hollis, republican, 222 to 191. Earlier in the day, in the session of the house, Britton had won the speakership, 217 to 182, over Charles A. Perkins of Manchester, republican.

As the constitution of the state requires that the governor shall be inaugurated on the second day of the legislature's session, the rather unusual ceremony of administering the oath of office at 10.15 o'clock at night took place last evening, the oath being administered by Enos M. Sawyer of Franklin, president of the senate. The governor spoke briefly, announcing that he will deliver his formal inaugural address Tuesday at noon.

The joint legislative convention last night also filled four vacancies in the senate, electing four democrats to the open places and giving that party a majority in the upper house.

The democratic-progressive coalition yesterday also elected three democratic councillors, making the council entirely democratic. With this went the presidency of the senate to Enos K. Sawyer of Franklin.

All that the republicans retained in either branch of the legislature was the clerk and assistant clerkship of the house and the sergeant-at-arms.

The speakership and clerkships were disposed of in the house at the morning session, Harrie M. Young and Bernard W. Carey being re-elected to the clerkships.

When the house met in the afternoon the votes for senators and governor were taken, the four senatorial vacancies being necessary to be filled before the governor could be voted for.

When the house met in the afternoon the votes for senators and governor were taken, the four senatorial vacancies being necessary to be filled before the governor could be voted for. The first ballot for senator showed that the democrats and progressives were still working together, John C. Hutchins, democrat, being elected 220 to 201, over Fremont D. Bartlett, republican, in the first district.

From then on it was merely a repetition of democratic victories with only slight variations in the voting. Samuel H. Edes was elected over Eliza H. Carr in the seventh district, James Farnsworth of Nashua defeated Daniel M. Boyd in the 19th district, and John G. Parsons won over John Pender in the 24th district.

The democratic councillors elected

LINCOLN'S MASQUERADE

Event Attracted Many to Lincoln Hall

The well known Lincoln of this city held the third in their series of masquerade dancing parties last evening in Lincoln hall on Gorham street and the event was attended by marked success.

As on previous occasions of the kind, a large gathering of friends of the organization was present and spent a very pleasant evening.

The feature event of the evening was the grand march of the patrons in various costumes and this started shortly before 9 o'clock. Among the variety of characters imitated by the young men and women were cowboys, sailors, soldiers, German lads, belt-hoys, messenger boys, Scotch bagpipers, dairy-maids, Colonial maids, ladies, Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Quakeresses and others. Very many took seats in the gallery to look on at the event and the grand march which preceded the general dancing afforded these spectators a very pleasing spectacle.

The forty or more variously attired couples wound in and about, following the leaders through the complicated procession, meeting and separating, and laughing and exchanging jovial remarks about one another's costumes.

The patrons received a very neat little dance order containing 15 numbers and several extras, and general dancing was enjoyed to music furnished by the Manhattan orchestra. After the second dance, everybody unmasked and there were many surprises as the guests found out who their partners of a short time before were.

The officers in charge of the affair are deserving of commendation for the manner in which it was conducted, for it certainly furnished unlimited enjoyment to all who had the good fortune to be present.

The officers were as follows: General manager, John Durkin; assistant general manager, Percy Edwards; floor director, Carl Mixer; assistant floor director, Joseph Carroll; chief aid, Stanley Marshall; list of members, Arthur Wetherall, Andrew Jenkins, Leo Reznier, Walter Chadwick, Frank Marshall, Thomas McDowell, Webster Rockwell, Frank Whelan, Raymond Burns, Frank Kelly, Edward Lanlot, George Hagerly, Harold Dyer, Edward Brennan, John Mixer, Joe Salome, Philip Weiss, George Little, Joe Buckley, Martin Flannagan, Thomas Hession, Richard Donoghue, Paul McDonald, Lee Lyons, treasurer, Arthur R. Chadwick.

NAILED OLD OFFENDER

John Newsom Charged With Counterfeiting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The arrest at Dothan, Ala., of John Newsom on a charge of counterfeiting coins, reported to secret service headquarters here today brings into custody an old offender, according to the officials. Twenty dollars in counterfeit coins and plaster molds for dollars, halves, quarters and nickels, it is said, were taken with Newsom who was convicted at Montgomery, Ala., in 1909, and sentenced to a year's imprisonment for counterfeiting.

Fire Commissioner Reports Firebugs Are Costing the City $4,000,000 a Year

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Firebugs are costing this city $4,000,000 a year, according to Fire Commissioner Johnson, who opened yesterday an unusual exhibit to illustrate that arson was a rampant crime in the city, due, it is alleged, to the ease with which valueless property can be heavily insured.

Among the exhibits is a series of 135 insurance policies totalling $127,500, insurance which Commissioner Johnson's

HOPELESS DISSENSION In House of Commons Over Taxes on Foods.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The project of imposing taxes on food imported into the British Isles put forward by some of the leaders of the opposition in the house of commons has created such hopeless dissension in the unionist party as to render almost certain the retention of power by the liberal government for the two years necessary to overcome the resistance of the opposition to the measures favored by the government.

HEAD AND FACE FULL OF PIMPLES

Just Like Little Boils. Scratched Until They Bled. Face Disfigured. Itched and Burned. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Well as Ever.

R. F. D. No. 2, Albany, N. Y.—"One morning I got up with my head and face full of pimples. They looked just like little boils. The itching was so intense that I scratched them until they bled and then they formed a scab and kept bleeding. The scabs were so bad that I had to have my hair clipped. My face was disfigured so that I was ashamed to go out, and at last I itched and burned. I hardly got any sleep for almost a year.

"I used all kinds of ointments and most every kind of medicine that anyone would prescribe to me, but without relief. Finally one day a lady said to me, 'Why don't you try Cuticura Soap and Ointment?' At once I tried them; I began to wash the sores twice a day with the Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment on the sores and in just about two months there were no signs of scabs or no scars on my face or head, and my hair grew just lovely. I was as well as ever." (Signed) Mrs. Henry Lapierre, Nov. 1, 1912.

Why not have a clear skin, soft white hands, a clean scalp and good hair? It's your birthright. Cuticura Soap with an occasional use of Cuticura Ointment will bring about these coveted conditions in most cases when all else fails. Sold everywhere. Sample of each free with 23-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

24—Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

MAY NOT NAME GOETHALS

Taft Likely to Leave Work for Wilson

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Opposition of democratic senators to President Taft's plan of putting Col. George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama canal, at the head of the civil government of the zone, took such proportions yesterday that some of Mr. Taft's associates urged him to forego the plan and leave the creation of the new zone government to his successor, President-elect Wilson.

Some who talked with the president early in the day were convinced that he would canvass the situation further before abandoning his plan.

Others in close touch with the president were positive that out of consideration for Col. Goethals, whom he does not wish to involve in a political dispute, he would give up the plan, and that Col. Goethals immediately after appearing before the congressional committee formulating appropriations for fortifications of the canal would return to his work.

EXCITEMENT IN FALL RIVER

Continued

Fall River Account

FALL RIVER, Jan. 3.—Charles H. Richardson Jr., the late superintendent of the Shove mills, was a suicide.

This is the official verdict returned to the police last night by the medical examiner for the district, Dr. Thomas F. Gunning.

Two Fall River men and a Swansea resident are under arrest charged with being implicated in the wholesale thefts of cotton and cotton waste from the Shove mills.

Supt. Richardson, it is thought, feared the outcome, as the result of the vigilance of the Shove mill officials combined with the work of a paid detective from Rhode Island.

The thefts are believed to have worked on his mind. When he reached his home in Lincoln, Friday night, after leaving the Shove mill office, it is thought by then and there planned to end his life.

Hought Styrcholine Tablets

Last night Marshal John Fleet was made acquainted with the manner in which Supt. Richardson took his life. Early Friday evening the late superintendent called upon Dr. Thomas F. Gunning, veterinarian of the board of health. The police say, and the statement is substantiated on the highest authority that Supt. Richardson asked Dr. Maloney over the telephone for a prescription for a poison that would kill a dog.

Dr. Maloney was told who was talking to him, and the question being entirely within the limit of professional honor, Dr. Maloney said that he would furnish a prescription that would kill the dog, if the superintendent so desired.

The veterinarian, it is stated, then informed Supt. Richardson that the prescription could be had at J. C. Brady's drug store. Supt. Richardson was told that he could call for the prescription and that it would be furnished him.

Supt. Richardson lost no time in going to the drug store. In the meantime, however, Dr. Maloney had failed to order the prescription, not believing that Supt. Richardson wanted it at such short notice.

Dr. Maloney was then called the second time by Supt. Richardson and asked to furnish the prescription. He did so. He ordered that a grain of strychnine tablet be given and Supt. Richardson made the purchase of two-grain strychnine tablets and for this he signed his name on the poison sales book.

Druggist Brady was not at his place of business at the time and when rumors flew thick and fast yesterday that a purchase of some poison had been made at a local drug store, the poison sales book was looked at and the name of the late superintendent was found.

Name on Druggist's Book

Medical Examiner Gunning was present at the time the discovery was made. The medical examiner then communicated his finding to City Marshal Fleet. In a statement which the medical examiner made last night he admitted that in his opinion there was no question but what Supt. Richardson was a suicide and that death was the result of strychnine poisoning.

Medical Examiner Gunning was not in the position last night to make any comment as to the course that Dr. Babcock pursued or should have pursued in making a report where sudden death was concerned or where there were circumstances involved that required further medical deliberation. Dr. Babcock in his interviews with the police would not listen to the suicide theory but in view of the discovery by Medical Examiner Gunning and the police last night, the suicide verdict has been firmly established.

Special Officer Waring of the Northern police station made an inspection of the poison sales book of a number of drug stores yesterday without success, but a thorough inspection of Druggist Brady's poison sales book last night set at rest all doubt as to how Supt. Richardson met his death.

The developments during the day relative to the cotton theft has set some mill men busy and, it is said, that before the matter is finally cleared up that there is a strong possibility of more arrests being made, in addition to the number now before the court.

Holden Claims He is Not Guilty

James Holden of Ridge st., J. William Day of 24 st. and Felix Breault of Swansea Center were arraigned yesterday at Newport in connection with the alleged theft of 10,000 pounds of cotton and 40,000 pounds of waste from the Shove mills.

Richardson for the past six years was superintendent of the Shove mills. The death certificate signed by Dr. D. A. Babcock gave the cause of death as apoplexy.

The declaration made yesterday is that the defense of James Holden, the rope and mill banding manufacturer, will be that he acted in good faith and his transactions were wholly with Supt. Richardson. It will be claimed that most of his transactions with the late superintendent were in cash and that he had no guilty knowledge of any irregularity in the disposal of the cotton and waste.

Change in Billiards Rules

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Safety plays are to be retained as permissible in billiards and not to be penalized in the rules about to be established by the National Association of Amateur Billiard Players, according to a decision reached by the rules committee and announced today. Prominent amateur players had opposed the proposed rule on the ground that it would take from billiards what amounted to its only defensive element. The purpose of the rule was to do away with the elaborate wrecking of a match by a player who was unable to get his stroke and who would not allow his opponent to make any progress out of his turns at the table. Play lasting for five hours or more has often resulted from such exhibitions.

OWLS MAKE PROGRESS WILLING TO SAY GOODBYE

Have Enjoyed Prosperous Year

Castro Engages Passage for Tomorrow

The Nest of Owls of this city held the opening meeting of the year 1913 last night with a very large attendance. Many speeches were made on matters pertaining to the advantage of the order and much routine business was transacted.

The Lowell Nest of Owls begins the year 1913 under the most favorable auspices. The general order all over the English speaking world has made wonderful strides in every line of effort. Its membership has greatly increased and the annual reports coming in from the home nest show the subordinate nests everywhere in the United States to be strong financially.

The money remains absolutely under the control and dominion of the local members. The funds will be utilized for the only purpose intended, the payment of sick benefits, and death benefits to its members, and the support of its widows and orphans.

The order was founded in November, 1904, a little more than eight years ago, and has now a membership of over three hundred thousand in the United States alone. This growth has been remarkable for its membership not only includes the manual laborer and the business man, but men of the professions, clergymen, governors of states and congressmen as well.

The Lowell Nest was instituted Dec. 19th, 1909 with Edward M. Bowers as president, Hector Turnbull as secretary, and John A. Bailey as treasurer. During its existence it has paid out over thirteen thousand dollars in sick benefits and death claims. The Nest has three devoted doctors and a zealous and faithful secretary, and has been made lighter and happier and the widows and orphans of departed members have received their claims in many cases, before the funeral was over.

Last night the treasurer and the two secretaries, submitted their reports which show the Lowell Nest to be very strong financially and numerically, and is yet the largest nest by far in New England.

Past President Edward M. Bowers, just retiring, had the honor of being raised to the second degree by the supreme council of the order.

This is not only a recognition of Mr. Bowers' ability and zeal in the cause of Owldom, but is considered by Lowell Owls to be a great honor to the local nest.

He then quoted the language of the supreme president of the order to Mr. Bowers, "We trust to see you, not only in the second degree, but the notice of which you acknowledge, but much higher in the order."

It is men of your kind that the order looks to for its management and its future success. Honesty and disinterested sincerity you exemplify. That is the highest commodity to be found in human nature."

This is a most flattering tribute to Past President Bowers and his work, and a reception was tendered to him at the close of the business session.

Besides the regular routine work of the business meeting three candidates were received into the mysteries of Owldom, after which came the installation of the officers, elected at the last meeting.

The installation ceremony which was performed by Past President E. M. Bowers was very impressive, the full ritual of the order being used. Each candidate was given a copy of the constitution and a copy of the order of installation and exhortation as well as a Scriptural quotation, and every man renewed his obligation to the order.

A most pleasing feature of the evening's exercises was the presentation by Past President Bowers of very nice mementoes to Mr. Boucher, president of the board of auditors, and Mr. MacCallum, chairman of the board of auditors.

Mr. MacCallum has the honor of having brought in the greatest number of candidates for membership during the past year, and Mr. Boucher for distinguished services on important committee work and as chairman of the board of auditors.

Both gentlemen were completely surprised, but expressed their generous thanks in well chosen words. At the close of the meeting a social hour was held Thursday evening, Jan. 16 in Elks hall, there will be a short business session, which will include the auditor's report and an initiation, etc., after which open house will be held for the remainder of the evening and every owl in Lowell is invited to this function. A pleasing program of musical and literary numbers is prepared by the entertainment committee, under Chairman MacCallum.

His Honor Mayor James E. O'Donnell is to be the guest of the evening and will address the meeting. His subject will be "Municipal Government Under the New Charter."

The commissary department under "Dick" Flynn has made liberal provision for the collation which will be served in the upper hall. A generous welcome is extended to all who are standing in Lowell. Everything will be free and the upper room will be used for the overflow, if the large hall will not accommodate all who will come.

GAVE AWAY 40,051 EGGS

South End Diet Kitchen on Common Street Also Distributed 20,737 Quarts of Milk During Year

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—At the annual meeting of managers of the South End Diet Kitchen yesterday morning at the home of Miss Fanny T. Sturges, 307 Beacon street, it was reported that 12,259 applications for assistance were received during the year and 20,737 quarts of milk and 40,051 eggs were distributed. The rooms at 21 Common street have been entirely renovated.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Peter C. Brooks, president; Miss Mary E. B. Duffin, secretary; Miss Fanny T. Sturges, treasurer; Miss J. W. Frothingham, Mrs. L. Tucker, Burr, Mrs. Henry Jackson, Mrs. E. M. Salton, Miss H. W. Emmons, 24, Miss Roxana Blackwell, Mrs. J. A. Frye, Mrs. Charles S. Richardson, Miss Grace Parker, Mrs. William C. Endicott, Jr., Miss E. M. Duffin, managers; Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Miss Barbara Burr, Miss Natica Treche, Miss Katharine Falvey, Miss Mary Whitney, and Miss Constance Cunningham, assistant managers.

New Year's Party

A very pleasant New Year's party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moran, 21 Cedar street. A pleasing entertainment was given by Master Wendell Moran, Dorothy Flynn, Gerald Hennessy, Leo Moran and many others. Refreshments were served.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Cipriano Castro, ex-president of Venezuela, engaged passage yesterday afternoon on the steamship America, sailing from Hamburg Saturday at 8 a. m. His valet will accompany him.

The officers of the line said that so far as they knew the Venezuelan would board the steamer at her pier like any other passenger. This would require him, for a short time at least, to tread the soil of this country, from which he was barred when he arrived from Europe Tuesday on the liner La Touraine.

No formal charge to warrant his detention has been made against Castro beyond the report of La Touraine's surgeon that his physical condition made it advisable to keep him at Ellis island pending further medical examination. Before the decision of the immigration authorities was announced Castro declared he was willing to go back to Europe of his own accord.

Castro yesterday denied that he was seeking to stir up another revolution in Venezuela.

"It is impossible for me," he said, "to regard my lost fortunes there as a reason to think that I want to stir up trouble, and no proof. This last word I give to the American people. While I return I pray for the prosperity of the grand people of the United States."

Asked about the money and lands he had lost in Venezuela, he replied: "All of my money was taken by Pres. Gomez. I am ruined. He robbed me of 25 millions of francs. He even took my horse and mule and my house (unfurnished). This was done after my departure from Venezuela in 1905 to go to Europe for an operation."

"I have no money interests in Venezuela now. Everything is lost, even my honor. I have read a statement that Pres. Gomez has given to Gen. Jose Hernandez a number of shares in a Venezuelan company. These shares are mine and Pres. Gomez had no authority or right to dispose of them."

Gen. Castro said his wife was on the island of Tenerife, in the Azores.

NOBODY KNOWS WHAT

Something Happened in

Meriden Church

MERIDEN, Conn., Jan. 2.—Something happened in Meriden New Year's morning—they don't know what yet, because the evidence is conflicting.

When the chimes of St. Paul's Universalist church rang out a greeting to the new year at midnight, several people of previously good reputation within sound of the bells declare the recognized such tunes as "How Dry I Am" and "If I Had a Hammer, I'd Nail Them To The Cross."

So sure were they of what they heard that comment became criticism and criticism produced complaint. Chimes Master Horace Doolittle, also of previously good repute equal to that of his accusers when remonstrated with yesterday by a trustee of the church, indignantly denied the charges. He said he was trained in the times they say his claims sprung upon the New Year's morning air. Doolittle says he played "O, Happy Day" and "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds" and that's all, and that people of the neighborhood apparently don't know even the most common of the hymns when they hear them.

IN CHELMSFORD CENTRE

Officers of the Grange

Installed Last Night

The recently elected officers of the Chelmsford grange were installed last evening at the regular bi-monthly meeting in the Odd Fellows hall. There was a large attendance and at the conclusion of the business meeting a bountiful supper was served by the gentlemen of the lodge. The chairman of the supper committee was Mr. Emile Ferguson, who was aided by Messrs. Fred Fletcher, Wilbur Lapham, Walter Holder, Isaac Knight, Eben G. Adams, Fred Hazen, William Tucker, Frank Lupton, David George, Fred A. Russell, George M. Section, Daniel Haley, John Eaton, Minot Bean and Walter Merrill, of whom some acted as waiters.

At the business meeting reports were made by the secretary and treasurer. Messrs. Harlan Knowlton and Frank Spaulding, Mr. C. D. Richardson, past master of the state grange, with the aid of Miss Rachel Marshall, installed the following officers: Master, Mr. Walter Holder; overseer, Mr. Walter Vickery; steward, Mr. Edwin Lapham; assistant steward, Mr. Fritz Pearson; gatekeeper, Mr. Andrew Chabourne; treasurer, Mr. Frank Spaulding; secretary, Mr. Harlan Knowlton; chaplain, Mr. Isaac Stewart; Pomona, Miss Lena Tucker; Ceres, Mrs. Walter Holder; Flora, Miss Ethel Davis; lecturer, Miss Eliza Spaulding; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Carrie E. Dupre; executive committee (three years), Mr. Frank J. Lupton.

Mr. Harlan Knowlton, secretary, will make the grange a New Year's present by keeping them supplied with 1913 calendars.

Grangers representing lodges from Littleton, Groton, Ayer, Lowell, all the Chelmsford, Carlisle, Billerica and Dracut were present. Mrs. Charles Lyons, one of the charter members of the Billerica grange, honored the Chelmsford grange by her presence. The lecturer, Miss Eliza Spaulding, stated that the program for the coming year would be ready in a few weeks. At the close several interesting remarks were made by members of various lodges.

The report of the secretary, Mr. Harlan Knowlton, showed a membership of 226; gained at initiations 25, lost by death 2. The sum of $234.74 was cleared at the Middlesex North Agricultural fair.

A musical entertainment followed the banquet and was participated in by Misses Barney, Grace Dupre and Harriet Mansur of Lowell.

OAKLANDS IMPROVEMENT ASSO.

Meeting Held and Officers Elected—Reports Submitted

The members of the Oakland Improvement Assn. held a meeting last night and transacted considerable business among which was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The result of the election was as follows: President, Frederic A. Fisher; vice-president, Charles H. Holman; secretary, John A. McKenna; treasurer, William Conner; directors, C. F. Fleming, L. W. Hawkes, R. J. Welch, M. A. Adams, C. H. Clouston, P. S. Gilbert, C. A. Naylor, E. L. Fletcher, A. P. French, Dr. C. E. Simpson, T. J. Boulter.

The meeting was held at the home of Francis W. Qua in Harvard avenue and was largely attended. Three new members were initiated, F. W. Qua, Stanley E. Qua and Dr. Duxine. The work done by the association during the year was gone through and showed that the members were alive and greatly interested in the welfare of their district.

JOHN A. MCKENNA,
Secretary.

President Frederic A. Fisher read a report covering the work of the past year by the association and pointed out the construction of the new street from Westworth avenue to Parkview avenue and the building of a path from Parkview avenue to Hollywood avenue. The street has been named Shepard street and the path, Oakland path.

Secretary John A. McKenna read a report and this was followed by a report from Charles H. Holman for the committee on streets. The latter called attention to the dangerous condition of the lower end of Westworth avenue, along the car line, a similar condition of Laurel street, and said he hoped something would be done toward improvement.

The report for the month, extension committee was made by William Conner who said that the committee has expended $205.56 in the work and had covered practically all the territory bordering on Westworth, Parkview and Hollywood avenues and had accomplished the destruction of a great deal of moth infestation.

Mr. A. Adams reported for the mosquito destroyers. He said that on nine separate occasions between May 15 and Aug. 31, the stagnant pools in the lowlands had been covered with a mixture of kerosene and crude petroleum and he believed that temporary relief had been obtained. The cost of this had been less than $15.

Treasurer William Conner gave his report for the year. He showed receipts from memberships of $90; from sale of wood, $116.34; collections for the payment of the cost of the new street and path, $415; miscellaneous

$16.25, making total receipts of $667.62. Expenditures were, moth work, $205.56; streets, $560.12; mosquitoes, $17.63; miscellaneous $37.80; total, $519.11. A balance on hand at the beginning of the past year was $353.68, and accounting for this, there was a balance on hand this year of $102.79 and considerable sums of money yet to be collected.

Messrs. Jesse H. Shepard, D. L. Pace and J. H. Guillett were named as a nominating committee and, upon their suggestion, the officers were chosen for this year.

The sewer problem was discussed at length and it was evident that the members of the association believe that the sewer problem is one for immediate solution on the part of the city. The needs of the section were discussed.

Rebuild North Church Steeple
BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Descendants of Paul Revere have established a fund to rebuild the Old North church steeple, where, according to some local antiquarians, the two signal lanterns which sent Paul Revere to the saddle for his famous "midnight ride" were hung. C. H. Holton, senior warden of the church, announced today that the work would be begun immediately. The walls of the famous steeple are crumbling as a result of the storm of the past century.

AFTER SCOURING WOODS

Man Turns Up at His Home

MANSFIELD, Jan. 3.—Residents of the east part of Mansfield, in the vicinity of Canoe river, were given a scare yesterday afternoon by the discovery in the woods of a man's coat, shoes, rubbers, collar and necktie. Near these was a notebook in which was the name of Aiden Fuller, a resident of that part of the town.

Neighbors went to the home of the man and learned that he left home yesterday and had not returned. Word was then sent to Chief of Police Kennedy.

Chief Kennedy, with people of the east part of the town, scoured the woods about Canoe river for several hours, believing that the body of the man in question would be found somewhere in the woods.

Finally the searchers returned to the Fuller house, and there, seated by the fire, was Mr. Fuller, who claimed to have been bewildered last night and to have lost his way in the woods. Mr. Fuller was taken to the town farm, nearby, where he will be given attention until fully recovered from the effects of his exposure.

JONES TO SCOUT FOR REDS

Fleider Will Keep Manager Tinker Posted on Good Prospects in Northwestern Corner of Country

CINCINNATI, Jan. 3.—Fleider Jones, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, who is now in the lumber business in Portland, Ore., will scout for the Redlegs next season. It was announced yesterday manager Joe Tinker of the Reds is going to Portland next week to attend to affairs pertaining to his apple and cherry orchard there, and he will have a talk with Jones.

Tinker expects to arrange to have Jones furnish him hot tips on promising young players in that region. Tinker's plan is to have experienced resident scouts in various parts of the country, instead of traveling scouts.

WORK OF THE FIRE PROTECTIVE

Its Operations During Past Year Show Its Advantage Over the Horse Drawn Vehicles

The protective company of the Lowell fire department, located in Warren street, which responds to every alarm of fire, was kept busy during the year 1912 and the annual report of the work of the company shows that the members were kept very busy and did very effective work in protecting property. While this company has for years been noted for its excellent work the substitution of the automobile for the horse-drawn vehicles has resulted in an even higher grade of efficiency for the company is able to reach the scene of a fire much quicker.

During the year the company responded to 401 alarms of which 228 were bell alarms, 159 telephones, 17 stills and two automatic. They laid 495 covers and used 173 extinguishers and 81 tanks; also 775 feet of ladder were laid. They were on fire duty 457 1-2 hours and spent 647 hours on inspection duty. The automobile traveled 945 1-2 miles during the year. During the year the members responded to three second alarms and one general alarm.

The greatest amount of mileage in any one month was during December just ended when the machine traveled 153 miles while in August the mileage was the lowest, 25 miles.

The number of alarms responded to by months is as follows: January, 33; February, 25; March, 23; April, 23; May, 39; June, 37; July, 46; August, 13; September, 21; October, 31; November, 47; December, 50.

SLEEPS IN STATION

Not Even the Train Disturb Gov. Wilson in His 20-Minute Nap in Princeton, N. J.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 3.—President-elect Wilson demonstrated last night that when he is sleepy he can take a nap in the midst of any noise or turmoil. He rode home from Trenton, tired and sleepy, and kept his eyes closed on the train all the way from Trenton to Princeton Junction.

Here there was a 20-minute wait for the train to Princeton. The waiting room was empty and the governor settled himself on a bench in the corner where an oil lamp threw a dim shadow. Many a train thundered by, but the governor remained undisturbed.

The secret service men had to wake him when the train arrived, and the governor got aboard and resumed his nap. He had had a hard day's work on his correspondence, he said, and felt somewhat fatigued.

Peace Conference Postponed

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The opening of the peace conferences at St. James palace was postponed to six o'clock this evening to enable the Turkish delegates to fully digest the fresh instructions they have received from Constantinople and to put them into shape for presentation to the envoys of Bulgaria, Greece, Montenegro, and Serbia.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

The message of Governor Ross to the legislature is one of the most breezy and aggressive that he ever delivered. First and foremost, he argues for the election of United States senators by the people, getting back in a most effective manner at the republican leaders in the legislature for their attitude upon that question. He states that the election of senators by a party machine at this stage would be an outrage, and he urges the legislature to postpone action until such time as a law shall have been passed, providing for a popular selection of a successor to Senator Crane. We do not imagine that the governor's appeal on this point will be taken seriously by the republican party who see in this an opportunity to strengthen their power in congress. With the numerous candidates, including Ex-Governor Gild, Congressman McCull, Ex-Governor Dwyer, and several others, it is not likely that the republicans in the legislature will allow this opportunity to pass without making the most of it. The governor attacks the New Haven road, stigmatizing the recent deal with the Grand Trunk as a step towards monopoly, to control the transportation system of New England. He cites the opinion of the supreme court of the United States, to show that such agreements of railroads, presumably to destroy all competition, are in violation of the Anti-Trust Law. He also attacks the union of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine, claiming that if these roads are competing lines, they should not be permitted to combine under one management. He denounces the law authorizing the incorporation of the Boston Railroad Holding company as a scheme to stifle roadside competition, either within or without the commonwealth, and a disgrace to the state of Massachusetts, that should be promptly removed from the statute books. Discussing the railroad problems still further, the governor is forced to favor national ownership as the only alternative for adequate state regulation. The governor favors state regulation as the alternative of national ownership and operation and the only method by which the people can prevent railroad monopolies that will dominate even the state government. Like other public men who have discussed this railroad question, the governor is forced to admit that in order to properly control great systems of railroads, government ownership may be the ultimate necessity. It seems strange to find that many prominent men who denounced Mr. Bryan's attitude in favor of government ownership of railroads are now coming around to endorse it. The opinion is growing that in no other way can the railroads be properly controlled and allowed at the same time to develop in a manner that will insure the development of the country.

His Excellency reiterates his appeal for a public service commission and enumerates many improvements which such a commission would bring about. Among these are the regulation of rates and service, the construction of tunnels, the electrification of railroads, together with various other matters, equally far reaching and important. In view of the opening of the Panama canal in the near future, the governor wisely advises the legislature to promote, by every legitimate means, the development of the harbors and waterways of the state. This includes an appropriation for Boston harbor and continued effort to make certain rivers navigable. The governor has doubtless in mind the improvement of the Merrimack river as during his campaign he committed himself unequivocally to the support of that project. After the Waterways board shall have made its report, His Excellency will have an opportunity to send a special message to the legislature on this particular point. This message deals with but a few questions yet it gives some very hard knocks and on the whole it is a forcible and statesman-like document even though on some points His Excellency takes a stand that must be characterized as radical.

CASE OF JESSE POMEROY

It is alleged that Jesse Pomeroiy has resolved to make no further attempt to escape from the state prison at Charlestown. Pomeroiy had made that promise on many former occasions, but if he should see the slightest chance to escape, we do not think that he would be deterred in the slightest degree by his promise. There is something very sad in this Pomeroiy case. He was sentenced for life at the age of nineteen for a robbery resulting in the death of a man. He has made repeated attempts to escape, and the manner in which he has been punished has been such as to make it impossible for him to be released. It is a pity that he is not put to death, for he is a danger to the community.

FIRE CHIEF STAYS OUT

Justice Morton of the supreme court, who decided the Moffatt case against this city, has given a decision refusing to re-instate Thomas A. Harris, who was removed from the office of chief of the Lynn fire department, by Mayor Connelly of that city. The deposed chief petitioned for re-instatement on the grounds that he was removed without good cause and for political reasons, having received the order of removal three days after Mayor Connelly's defeat in the city election. In spite of the fact that the removal seemed to have a political complexion, the reasons set forth by Mayor Connelly were accepted as sound by Justice Morton, and hence the court's refusal to reinstate Chief Harris. This is but another proof of the power vested in the head of a department under the commission form of government. He can change his subordinates at will, provided he is not restricted by the vote of his fellow members of the council.

GOVERNOR SULZER'S MESSAGE

Governor Sulzer of New York makes a strong appeal for the popular election of United States senators. So many of the states have favored the change that it seems joint action in favor of the amendment should be taken at the earliest possible moment. Governor Sulzer also recommends a law that will prohibit child labor in the obnoxious form in which it has been found in New York canneries. The interests of labor, the abolition of unnecessary offices and other important reforms are touched upon in truly democratic style. Governor Sulzer proves himself to be a progressive democrat, although he is not extreme in any of his recommendations.

THE MUNICIPAL BOARD

The experience of the past year at city hall has demonstrated the necessity of a different distribution of the departments among the five members of the municipal board. Yet it is understood that some members are opposed to any change. But the member who from cowardice or fear of political consequences, refuses to vote for a change that would promote the interests of the city, will be set down as recreant to his duty. The sensible citizens of Lowell will stand by the man who fearlessly votes for the assignments that will best promote the public welfare; but they will condemn the member who for any other reason adopts a different course.

THE TOLL OF THE FISHERIES

Every year the fisheries in which the men of Gloucester engage, demand a heavy toll, and last year the number of lives lost was forty-five with ten vessels, valued at $13,500. The wreck of the schooner Patrician, near Shelbourne, Nova Scotia, last spring, was the most serious disaster suffered by the Gloucester fleet during the year. That alone left thirteen widows and seventeen fatherless children in Gloucester. Every year increases the number of the widows and orphans, of whom Gloucester must have far above the normal percentage. This is the price the city pays for her supremacy as a fishing port.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

The board of trade during the past year did excellent work, for which Secretary Murphy is to be duly commended. The late President Gray also took a deep interest in the work of the board but unfortunately was not spared to help push some of the new movements to success.

Seen and Heard

The other day, when I went to call on a friend, I found her in the kitchen, holding an animated conversation with Della, the cook. Della is a thin, elderly woman of unimpressive appearance, but she is an interesting talker, and has decided views and opinions of her own. They were discussing matrimony versus single-blessedness.

"Sure," said Della, with a flourish of the cloth with which she was polishing the silver, "sure. I was always perfectly willing to be married, but no one'd love me. So here I be. But I ain't given up hope yet—I'm what you might call a lady-in-waiting."

"Ladies-in-waiting" aren't always as frank as Della—most of them prefer to be called ladies-in-waiting.

The old man who was sitting across from me on the car was shabbily dressed, and he had a big scar on his left cheek. It was an ugly mark, red and disfiguring and extended from his temple down almost to his chin. I wondered how he could have received it. Aren't you often consumed with curiosity about people you see on the car, and don't you sometimes make up stories to yourself about them? I thought of an explanation for this old man's scar. He was a Civil war veteran, who had fought in the battle of Bull Run; a southern cavalryman came rushing up, his sword uplifted to strike a foe whose back was turned; my unknown hero pushed the other men away, and in doing this, he himself received the blow, and fell to the ground unconscious, while the southerner rode on, with a red stain on his sword.

But my reverie was disturbed by a loud exclamation. "Why, Dick, old man, for heaven's sake, what have you been doing to yourself?"

"Oh," lightly retorted the man with the scar, "a hod of bricks fell on me last week, when I passed by that new building they're putting up on the corner. I thought I was done for, but it's healing up, good now."

Some new versions of a famous nursery rhyme:

Mary was a little lamb,
Now she's a sufferer;
She doesn't go to school these days—
She's on the juryette.

Mary had a little lamb,
'Twas short for Lamentation,
And everywhere that Mary went
It caused great consternation.

Mary had one billy-goat,
With appetite for four;
It ate some rough on rats one day,
And now it is no more.

Mary had some fresh spring lamb,
That's what the water said,
But Mary said, "Cold storage sheep,
That's been a long time dead."

WOMAN AS A BANDIT

Mrs. Fowler Held for Highway Robbery

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Gertrude Desie Fowler, formerly the wife of a Maine druggist, was yesterday held in $1000 bonds for the grand jury in the Lynn district court, on the charge of assault and highway robbery.

It is alleged that on the night of Dec. 21 last Mrs. Fowler struck Miss Georgia Starkey of 621 Essex street, Lynn, on the head with a gas fixture and robbed her of a bag containing five dollars.

The assault and robbery took place in front of the English High school, and Miss Starkey was unable to identify her assailant because of a mask which the young woman wore. Footprints were found where she had made her escape through the high school yard, and according to the police the shoes of Mrs. Fowler fitted these marks.

The woman attempted to establish an alibi by claiming that she did not leave her home until 8.50 p. m., while the assault took place at 6.20. Her witnesses were discredited, however, and Associate Justice Edward R. O'Brien held her for the grand jury. She secured bail.

GIRL AS MAYOR'S SEC. LESSON ON DEMOCRACY

Salem Executive Establishes Precedent Being Prepared by Pres. Elect Wilson

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—President-elect Wilson is preparing a lesson on democracy for presentation to the national convention of the National Women's Democratic League which meets here next week according to a statement to the officials of the organization today. The message is expected to be the feature of the convention. Strong rivalry has developed in the race for the presidency of the league among the well known women mentioned in connection with the office being Mrs. Hamp Clark, Mrs. Oscar Underwood, Mrs. Perry Belmont and Mesdames Ayres, Cullum and Kinkaid. Messrs. Wilson and Taft are from New York and New Jersey. The convention will be called to order Tuesday.

INDIAN LEADERS To Attend Conference For Purpose of Organization For the Protection of Their Property

CASS LAKE, Minn., Jan. 3.—For the purpose of organizing the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota into a corporate body to enable them to act in unison for the protection of their property and for obtaining their dues from the government, all chiefs and leaders of the tribes have been invited to attend a great council to be held here next month. The movement was started at a general council of Chippewas on the Fond Du Lac reservation. It is proposed to adopt a constitution and by-laws at the great council and to establish a permanent headquarters.

Education Notes
Swiss schools—Nearly 80 per cent of the teachers in Switzerland are men," said W. K. Tate, supervisor of rural schools in South Carolina, to a conference of educators at the United States bureau of education. Mr. Tate has just returned from a three months' investigation in Switzerland under the auspices of the bureau.

Five hundred dollars is considered a good salary for a teacher. After a lifetime of service he may go as high as $500. Living is cheaper there than here, however, and in addition to his salary he is furnished with a dwelling, a certain amount of garden land and wood for fuel. His dwelling is generally in the same building with the school. His position is of considerable local importance. Aside from his duties in the schoolroom he is often secretary of the local creamery association, leader of the village band, organist in the church and general intellectual guide for the community.

"When a teacher is engaged for a position it is for life or a long term of years. He settles down with the people whose children he teaches, and generally expects to make that particular job his life work. And he stays. Changes are rare. Twelve new teachers in one year in a system of 210 was considered very unusual. The record for continued service in the same village is held by a teacher in Thurston, who has occupied the same position for fifty-five years. One teacher that I visited has held his position for twenty-four years and his father held the same position for thirty-five years before him.

"One of the most attractive features of the Swiss schools is the cordial personal relation that exists between teacher and pupil. There is nothing of the military in the discipline of the school; no lining-up, no marching to the classroom. They shake hands with the teacher, greeting him as if they had not seen him for a long time and are really glad to see him. The whole relation is one of charming naturalness and kindness on both sides.

"In the Swiss cantons school is in session from 8 to 4 in winter time, with an intermission of two hours at noon (three hours for the younger children). In the summer the children have to be at school at 7 a. m. "Failure to be 'promoted' is rare. After the four years of elementary training in the primary school, prepared for everybody, the children proceed into schools that are carefully differentiated for the various types of children. Some of the children enter upon a technical training; others are sent through the gymnasium and ultimately to the university, and still others are prepared for business life or any other suitable career, according to the ability and aptitude of the individual boy or girl."

Commissioner Claxton, who introduced the speaker, said he believed Americans would derive much benefit from Mr. Tate's study of conditions in Switzerland, which will soon be published as a bulletin of the bureau of education. "In Switzerland," said Dr. Claxton, "it's a case of the school for the people, not the people for the school. We can learn much from Switzerland—more perhaps than from some of the larger countries of Europe."

PUT DIRECT QUESTION TO TURKS

Peace Envoys Want Immediate Decision Whether Gov't Will Cede Adrianople

LONDON, Jan. 3.—The Balkan peace envoys have decided, it is reported, to put the direct question today to the Turkish delegation whether the Ottoman government is prepared to cede the fortress of Adrianople forthwith in the event of the Turks giving an unhesitating answer to the Balkan allies will grant them a period of 24 hours and if their reply at the end of that time is unfavorable the conference will be suspended. No other question will be considered by the allies until this point has been settled.

Turkey Will Yield
Stojan Novakovich, the leader of the Serbian delegation, said he was sure the allies would ultimately carry their point. The Turks, he believed, would certainly continue to resist the giving up of Adrianople but soon facts would be stronger than theories and Turkey would be compelled in the end to give way.

Pugitives from the besieged city as well as information obtained from British sources in Constantinople, M. Novakovich continued, indicated that the condition of the beleaguered garrison was an untenable one and that the capitulation of the fortress was merely a question of days and perhaps only of hours. Once Adrianople had fallen in the possession of the allies, and its garrison had become prisoners of the besiegers the problem would solve itself. Representatives of the Albanian provisional government sent to the British foreign office this morning a map on which the future frontiers of Albania as desired by them were marked. It accepted the would deprive Greece, Serbia and Montenegro of half of the territories they have conquered since the beginning of hostilities.

Exchange Views
Count Mensdorf-Pouilly, Dietrichstein, Austro-Hungarian ambassador in London and Marquis Imperi di Francavilla, Italian ambassador at Great Britain, exchanged views today concerning the future international administration of Albania, which it is said is to have a budget subsidized by the European powers, a body of military police, like that in the island of Crete, formed of native soldiers, with officers and non-commissioned officers drawn from the military forces of the European powers while probably Austria-Hungary and Italy will be entrusted with the naval police of the Albanian coast.

Officers Were Installed Last Evening

The regular meeting of the members of Court St. Paul, C. G. F., was held last night in C. M. A. C. hall and considerable business was transacted. Chief Ranger Raoul H. Monier presided and the installation of the recently elected board of officers took place, the installing officer being Deputy William Rival of Haverhill. The officers installed were as follows: Chief ranger, Paul T. Charronneau; vice chief, Laurent Gellman; recording secretary, Albert Gellman; financial secretary, J. A. Robillard; treasurer, John Pineault; orator, Arthur Lavelle; trustees, Adelard Sylvestre, Homer Ducharme and Edouard Raymond; conductors, Napoleon Avette and Joseph Forget; delegate to state convention, Raoul Monier; alternate, Arthur Lavelle; and medical examiner, Dr. J. H. Roy.

At the conclusion of the installing ceremony Deputy William Rival, in behalf of the members of Court St. Paul, presented a handsome gold ring to the retiring chief ranger, Raoul H. Monier. Although the latter was startled by the surprise, he managed to respond in a very appropriate manner.

Three new members were admitted into the organization, they being Emile Borgeau, Pierre Guertin and Adelard Dumont. Many applications for membership were also read before the meeting.

At the close of the business meeting a smoke talk was held and refreshments were served, while a musical program was rendered.

M.T.I. BACHELOR GIRLS

Enjoyable Costume Party at Mathew Hall

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season was the costume party given in Mathew hall last night by the M. T. I. Bachelor Girls.

The feature of the evening was the grand march which began at 9 o'clock and was participated in by about thirty couples. It was led by Miss Katherine D. Malone who was dressed in a decidedly gay and bright-colored palama costume. With her was Miss Jennie Wynn, who looked very charming in white. There were many original characters represented in the march—a head-carrier, a Sis Hopkins, cow-boys, nurses, fairies, a lady baseball player and many others, both pretty and funny.

The music for the occasion was furnished by the Middlesex Union orchestra, and there was a long program, lasting until midnight. Mrs. Blanche Roussin, President of Lowell composed the music for the grand march. She has dedicated the march to President-elect Wilson.

The judges who awarded prizes for the prettiest and most original girl's costume and the neatest and most original boy's costume were James Kelley and Harry Welch of Lowell and Leo Murphy of Lawrence. Miss Katherine Malone won the prize for the prettiest girl's costume; Mrs. Adeline Powers, as Sis Hopkins, was awarded the prize for the most original girl's costume. John O'Neil, who was costumed as a Red Cross hospital attendant, was the winner of the prize for the neatest boy present, and James Powers, the head-carrier, was declared to be the most originally clad boy in the hall.

The officers who conducted the dance are to be congratulated on a very pleasant and successful affair. They were as follows: General manager, Miss Mae C. Gallagher; assistant general manager, Miss Madeline Boland; floor marshal, Miss Katherine Malone; assistant floor marshal, Miss Lena Sheehan; chief aid, Miss Etta Finnegan; aids, Misses Marion Nolan, Jennie Wynn, Helen Kennedy, Lillian Smith, Julia Boland, Helen Buckley, Rose Nicholson, Marion Smith, Elizabeth Sullivan, Mae T. Gallagher, Anna McHale, Agnes Nicholson, Katherine King, Elizabeth Latham, Eleanor Buckley, Mae Boyle, Cecelia Leno, Isabelle Burns, Mae Dougherty, Lillian McPherson, Lena Reardon, Molly Peterson, Estelle Connolly, Mae King, Lydia Gallagher, Marion Devine, and Estella Clancy.

City Hall Briefs
A story having to do with the abatement of taxes appeared in The Sun a few days ago and it was stated that the amount of abatements for the twelve years was about $132,000. One of the assessors was asked this morning what effect the abatement of taxes would have upon the tax rate and he answered that it would have no effect at all. It seems that tax abatements are always taken into consideration and are cut out, so to speak, when the tax rate is estimated.

William F. Sadler has been appointed an assessor of lights by Commissioner George H. Brown at a salary of $3 a day. He started to work on Monday night of the present week.

To Sell Railroad
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 3.—A decree was entered in the district court here today authorizing Special Master McCling to sell the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal railroad under foreclosure on a date to be named by the master. The lowest bid to be accepted is placed at $5,900,000.

Re-establish Blockade
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—State department advices from Athens today report the re-establishment after a temporary suspension of the blockade of Santa Quaranta by the Greek navy.

JAS. R. KEENE DIED THIS MORNING

Was Prominent in Financial and Sporting Circles Throughout the World

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Death came early today to James R. Keene, a long prominent in financial and sporting circles not only in this country but abroad. Mr. Keene died in a private hospital following an operation for abdominal trouble. Mr. Keene underwent the first operation for his trouble in Italy two years ago and a second one in London in the summer of 1911, at which time there were doubts that he would survive. He rallied, however, and returned to New York last fall and went into seclusion in his apartments at a hotel. The fact that he was seriously ill again became known about a week ago when his favorite valet, Frank Fisher, committed suicide. His removal early this week to a private hospital at the request of his son, Foshall Keene, was against his own wishes as he had defied the assertions of the doctors that he was in a critical condition. Mr. Keene was 74 years old, having been born in London in 1838. His early life was spent in California at a mine, where he eventually made a fortune in stocks. His later career in Wall street came to a practical end with the collapse of the Columbus & Hackney pool of which he was manager in January, 1910. Mr. Keene has owned many of the most prominent racehorses in this country and Europe and his winnings for many years were the largest of any one American turfman.

SAYS HE LIKES NEGROES BEST

Virginia Judge Thinks Wisconsin Man Must be Insane in That Case

Virginia justice apparently takes a much more charitable view of the mingling of the races than Illinois does. Chicago displayed an eagerness to "draw and quarter" or to "burn in oil" Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, for presuming to associate with white women. Richmond, the heart of the south, has decided that a white man who associates with negroes from choice must be crazy. The subject of the Virginia capital's solicitude is Marcus Lamkin, who came to Richmond from Fond du Lac, Wis. Clad in a shabby blue serge suit, his sandy hair and beard showing sad need of a barber's care, Lamkin was arraigned before Justice Crutchfield, in the police court, charged with sending threatening letters to Gov. Mann. Chief of Police Werner, High Constable Wyatt and the judge preside.

"How about this thing, Mr. Prisoner?" sharply asked the court. "Why, I prefer to live with negroes instead of white persons, your honor," was the reply of the Wisconsin man, who appeared to feel a pride in his utterance. "What's that?" fairly shouted the court. "I mean here in the south," the prisoner hastened to add. Then he continued to explain: "I know this is odd, but I can't help it. Life among your negroes is really more to my liking. 'You must be insane,' retorted the justice. 'Don't you know you are in a bad country to talk like that. It simply won't do in this city, sir.' Then Justice Crutchfield leaned over and conversed for a moment with Edward B. White, his clerk. Turning to the prisoner again, he said: "Your case is most perplexing. I think I shall have a commission of lunacy held upon you. It is not because of the threatening letters you are accused of having sent, but because of the abnormal tendencies you have shown in your preference for negroes over white folk. No sane man could have such prejudices. Lamkin was hustled off to the city jail to be held pending an examination by alienists. Lamkin came here two months ago and at once attracted attention by his peculiar habits. The letter to Gov. Mann, which led to the arrest of the Wisconsin man, contained a rambling account of alleged trouble the writer had had with the Commonwealth of this city. The writer declared he had a balance on deposit in the institution, but could not get it out. An appeal was made to the governor to take up arms to the end that justice be done. Since he came to this city Lamkin has worked as a carpenter, a draftsman and a ditch digger—Washington Post.

LANDS ON COMMON

Aviator Makes Feat Called Impracticable

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Harry M. Jones, of Providence, marked up a new feat in the history of aviation in New England when he ended a flight from the old Sausage race track yesterday morning by volplaning over the skirting trees and coming to a landing on Boston common. Other aviators, including Harry Atwood and Graham White, had declared the common too hazardous a landing place for any man to attempt, because its location made it a vortex for treacherous air currents. Jones is 22 years old and is young at 23. He had been in the air only about 30 times before yesterday. When he set out he found atmospheric conditions over the hangars so good that he decided to start the 1913 flying season by astounding Boston folks. He circled to a height of 1500 feet and at 10 a. m. started for Boston. At that height he found a haze between him and the earth, so that he could hardly make out the landscape. Because of the haze he lost his way for a time and found himself flying inland over Malden and a corner of Everett. Finally he sighted Bunker Hill monument and beyond that the state house dome. After that his only trouble was in negotiating the landing. He said that he found that task a hard one, for the ring of trees and the strings of wire fences called for an exercise of all his skill and a good bit of his luck before he settled down on the baseball field at the extreme lower end of the common. He secured an email from Mayor Fitzgerald to have the Burgess-Wright biplanes remain on the common for a few days until he makes plans to have it wheeled somewhere for a return flight. The common presents practically no chance for a good take-off. Mayor Fitzgerald, indeed, with little favor on the part of Jones, although admiring his skill. The mayor said that if the machine had been forced to descend on a street while passing over the city many lives might have been lost, and that there should be a law preventing aviators from flying over cities.

Ethel Wotton Surprised
Miss Ethel Wotton was surprised by the members of the Alice Freeman Palmer class at her home in North Chelmsford Wednesday night when she was presented a beautiful frame picture of a scene in Venice. The presentation speech was made by Miss Margaret Varney. The evening was spent in a social manner and refreshments were served by Miss James Wotton.

Skin trouble of the worst kind

ST. LOUIS, MO., October 22, 1912.
"I suffered awfully with skin trouble of the worst kind for about three months. My face was so red and itchy that it was impossible to stand it any longer. I wasn't able to even rest at night, it used to get me so nervous that I wasn't able to speak to anybody."

Resinol cured her.
"I tried several other remedies in vain, until I noticed the advertisement of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. I sent for samples and they helped me wonderfully. I used Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment for about three months, and then I was cured completely." (Signed) Miss A. Saltzman, 1142 N. Jefferson Ave.

"For over 17 years Resinol has been a doctor's prescription and household remedy for skin troubles, eczema, burns, scalds, piles, etc. Resinol Ointment (50c and 75c) and Resinol Soap (25c) sold by all druggists. For sample each, write to Dept. 14-A, Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md. Try Resinol for chapped hands."

GIRL BOUND AND GAGGED

Charlestown Home Was Visited by Burglar

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Bound and gagged by a burglar, whom she discovered ransacking her room at 8 Phipps street, Charlestown, early yesterday morning, Jennie Foley, was found in a semi-conscious condition by her father three hours later. The girl is now in a serious condition, from the effects of the encounter. The burglar escaped with $10.00 of her savings, which Miss Foley pinned in the pocket of a summer coat. The Charlestown police are investigating. Failure of the girl to appear at breakfast prompted her father, Peter Foley, to go up to her room. He was shocked to find his daughter on the bed, her hands tied with a neck scarf, and a towel across her mouth. Miss Foley said last night that she attended a theatre with her chum on Wednesday night and returned shortly after eleven and went to her room. She soon fell asleep. She was awakened by footsteps and saw a man prowling about the bureau. She screamed and jumped out of bed, when the man pounced on her. After binding and gagging the girl, the man ran to the street. Mr. Foley remembers being awakened by some person going down stairs about 4 o'clock in the morning, but believed the noise came from the next house. He believes the man either got into the house early in the evening and secreted himself in a vacant room or had a false key. Miss Foley describes the man as about 20 years of age, five feet tall, with a gold tooth, shabbily dressed, poor shoes and a cap.

BILLERICA
The Progressive club of Billerica will hold an entertainment and reception in the parlors of Billerica's new hotel, "Bennett Hall," tonight. Daniel Cosgrove of Lowell, who was the progressive candidate for lieutenant governor in 1912, and the Rev. Mr. Frothingham of Pepperell, and other out-of-town speakers have been secured. The club has rented a Billiard and pool room in the annex of Bennett Hall, but the reception tonight will be held in the new hotel. Mr. Patrick Mahoney, manager of the Merrimack Clothing Company, is ill at his home at Brown's corner.

ST. MARGARET'S CHORUS
Members Were Entertained by Prof. and Mrs. Hurd at the Lowell Conservatory of Music
The members of St. Margaret's chorus were entertained last evening at the Lowell Conservatory of Music by Prof. Fred C. Hurd, director of St. Margaret's choir, and Mrs. Henrietta Hurd. During the evening organ solos were played by Mr. Louis Guilbault, the church organist and Miss Katherine Hennessey sang several pleasing solos. Other soloists were Miss Murielingham, contralto; Mrs. Hewing, Mr. E. Hurd, bass; Miss Hurd, soprano; and Miss Hurd, alto. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a large bouquet to Mrs. Hurd by the ladies of the choir, and a $5 gold piece to Mr. Hurd by the male members of the choir. Prof. Hurd's Portuguese people, then amused the guests by several difficult tricks. Refreshments were served during the evening and the thirty-eight members of the choir present departed at midnight with expressions of gratitude for the excellent time provided.

Amateur Fencers to Meet
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—American amateur fencers who have cherished for several years the project of an international match said today that a provisional challenge had been sent to the English amateurs to visit this country and compete for an international trophy, similar to the Westchester polo cup or the Davis cup in lawn tennis. J. Sanford Saltus, long a patron of American fencers, is said to have agreed to provide the trophy. Walter S. Coleman, secretary of the Amateur Fencers League of America, said it was hoped to make this match the beginning of a series of international affairs which would later include French and Italian amateurs.

Accident Inquiry Designation
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The board of directors of the International Mercantile Marine Company today accepted the resignation of J. Bruce Ismay as president. The resignation takes effect June 23, 1913. A statement given out in connection with this announcement said that the presentation of the resignation and its acceptance was in no wise connected with an agreement with Mr. Ismay made in February, 1912. The directors also decided that in due course Harold A. Sanderford, first vice president, would be elected to succeed Mr. Ismay.

FLIM FLAM CASE WAS TRIED

Before Judge Enright Today— Several Cases in Which Hus- bands Abused Wives

John Foley, a self-confessed flim-flam worker, who short-changed Mrs. Helen Gellinas, who conducts a store at 56 Merrimack street, out of $5, was arraigned before Judge Enright in police court this morning and after he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of charging him with a complaint, the court seriously considered giving the defendant a direct sentence, but a friend interceded for Foley and the court imposed a fine of $25.

Foley stated that his home is in Brooklyn, but had been around Boston for the past three weeks. He came to this city Tuesday and purchased a five cent cigar at Mrs. Gellinas' store for which he offered a $10 in payment. He received 95 cents back and then he asked her to change the $5 bill which she did, but after he had left the store she found that she was $5 short.

Foley was arrested in Lawrence the day before yesterday for attempting to work the same trick and yesterday morning in court in that city he was fined $10. He was then arraigned on a warrant by Inspector McLaughlin and brought to Lowell.

Broke Into Freight Cars

Irving Moore and David Bowden were charged with breaking and entering freight cars belonging to the Boston & Maine railroad and the larceny of numerous articles. They pleaded guilty to larceny, but denied having made a break, claiming that two other fellows whose names they did not know, broken open the doors.

The articles which it is alleged were stolen from the cars were as follows: 200 knives, each of the value of five cents; 36 knives at 15 cents each; 72 at four cents; 22 pairs of cut-throats; 15 cents per pair; nine shirts each of the value of $1.40; pairs of drawers, $1 each; 48 bottles of cologne, 44 cents each; bottle of powder, 23 cents; 87 jewelry cases, seven cents each; 121 pin cushions, 1 cent each; 25 candle sticks, seven cents each; 15 candle holders, seven cents each.

Deputy Downey testified that he questioned the defendants and several other boys in the guard room at the police station last Sunday and the boys admitted that they had received articles which had been taken from the freight cars which were being on the Boston & Maine tracks near West.

James W. Webster, special officer of the Boston & Maine railroad, testified that on Dec. 15 eight cars on the tracks in Wamsuit had been broken into and numerous articles stolen.

Irving Moore, one of the defendants, testified that he is 18 years of age and lived in South Whipple street. He said he and Bowden were going skating on the day of the break and they came across two fellows, whose names he could not remember, went with them and saw them break into the cars and take articles. He said he took two boxes of candy.

Mrs. Bowden, mother of one of the defendants, said that her son had always been a good boy up to the present time and believed that he had learned a lesson and would not do such a thing in the future.

The court was inclined to be lenient with Bowden on account of his mother's pleading, but in view of the custody of the prohibition officer while Moore was sentenced to the Massachusetts reformatory.

James P. Sheehan and Norman Bowden, juveniles, were arraigned on similar complaints in the juvenile session and Bowden was sentenced to the reformatory and the case of Sheehan was continued until next Friday when he will be committed to the boys' school at Shirley.

Assaulted His Wife

There was a lively time at the home of Alphonse Auger in Moody street Christmas day, according to a neighbor, August, who said her husband charged him with threatening and assault and battery.

Mrs. Auger testified she had been married to her present husband 11 years but about three years ago she had to leave him and go to Montreal, N. H., for about two months ago she returned to him in this city after he had promised to treat her better. She said her husband awoke early in the morning and asked her to get him a glass of whiskey, which she did. Shortly after that he asked for another glass and she gave him the second one. He then went into her room and dressed himself and was leaving the room when her husband rushed at her and assaulted her, threatening her with a knife. She said that her children were present when her husband assaulted her.

At the conclusion of the testimony Judge Enright found Auger guilty and sentenced him to four months in jail and was placed on probation on condition that he pay his wife $1 a week. He was also placed under $200 bonds to keep the peace for six months.

Struck His Wife

The only charge against Nicholas Balaban was that of drunkenness, but Police Officer Joseph Clark said that the man had been raising a disturbance in the house and he had been sent for to arrest the man. Mrs. Balaban, who resides at 65 Railroad street, said that her husband struck her last night.

There was under the influence of liquor at the time. The court gave the defendant a suspended sentence of four months in jail and placed him on probation for six months, adding that if Balaban struck his wife again he would be sent to jail.

Other Offenders

Adolph Crevier was sentenced to 15 days in jail and three first offenders were released.

Juvenile Session

There was a list of cases heard by Judge Enright in the juvenile session. Sentences were imposed in some cases while in others probations were handed out and some were continued.

This week is "Quarter Week" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

NEW NORMAL SCHOOL

Lawrence Citizens Anxious to Secure One

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Representative Frederick W. Schlapf has filed with the clerk of the house, his petition for legislation to provide for establishing another state normal school to be located in the city of Lawrence.

Mr. Schlapf has filed with the petition a draft of a bill which is more a matter of form in providing the committee of education, which will consider the matter, something substantial to work on. In this bill the amount of money to be applied is not specified and it is expected that some further investigation may be necessary to decide upon the proper amount. It is proposed to raise the money by a bond issue and the bill does not specify the number of years that such bonds shall be allowed to run.

New York City Purchased House Occupied by Author of "The Raven"—Site Will Be Changed

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The city of New York has purchased the little cottage in the Bronx, where Edgar Allan Poe once lived, paying $3000 for it. It will be moved across the street from its present location to a site in Park.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Steaming slowly in a dense fog, the British cruiser Natal, late United States ambassador to England, passed in Sandy Hook shortly after eight o'clock this morning. Accompanying her as a guard of honor, the United States battleships Florida and North Dakota and the destroyers Roe, Drayton, McCall and Paulding, leaving quarantine arrangements called for slow progress of the vessels into the harbor and up the Hudson to the foot of West 96th street, where the body will be removed to the cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Shortly after 11 o'clock the Natal weighed anchor and started up the Hudson.

The Florida returned the Natal's salute of 19 guns and as did the other ships in the cortege. The military band, English ensign at the mast, one of the black draped caissons on which the late ambassador's body was to be borne to the cathedral of St. John the Divine, not far from the Battery, P. Threlkeld, an artillery, Fort Meyer, Virginia, stood at attention at the caisson, to which eight horses were hitched.

At the funeral services at the cathedral tomorrow there will be present

A SMOKELESS POWER PLANT

The Government Sets Example in Washington, by Attempting to Combat Nuisance

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Setting the good example of operating its own power plant smokelessly in a city that is attempting to combat the nuisance, the United States bureau of mines is out with the statement that the smoke of cities can be largely reduced, and perhaps entirely prevented. The power plant is connected with the experimental station of the bureau of Pittsburgh, Pa., and it has been conducted without objectionable smoke for more than two years.

The bureau's report, made public today, destroys the popular notion that smoke may be lessened by the use of a so-called "smoke consumer," some special device, which if placed in the stack or in the smoke passages, will in some way consume the smoke. Samuel H. Flagg, engineer in charge of the smoke investigations, declares that although such a method may not be an impossibility, it is impractical. Smoke, he says is caused by the flame from the coal coming into contact with the cool surfaces of a boiler. As an illustration places a saucer in the flame of a candle, and the bottom of the saucer will be covered with smoke. Hold the saucer just above the flame and there will be no smoke. Coal can be burned smokelessly, Engineer Flagg insists, if you give the coal the proper chance to burn. That is all there is to it.

The bureau of mines is charged with conducting tests to increase the efficiency with which the fuels purchased by the government are used, and incidentally it found that federal buildings throughout the country are not only wasting coal but are adding an ordinance or of his own personal feeling or inclination. This condition does not prevail today in any city in the United States. Just as soon as each individual realizes that it is not only his duty, but that it will work to his own benefit to cooperate in that which will result in the greatest good to all, just so soon will the necessity for a smoke ordinance disappear. In the meantime, however, or until the present methods of burning bituminous coal are radically changed, such a necessity will exist in those localities where large quantities of such coal are consumed.

Under present conditions it is too often the case that buildings are so designed as to leave insufficient room for the proper equipment. Boilers are so placed that they cannot be properly cleaned or operated; hence they are forced, or additional capacity is crowded in, and smoke-producing conditions result. It is therefore important that the situation of the boiler plant and the providing of adequate space for it should receive consideration no less than the proper design of furnaces. Obviously, to accomplish these ends, persistent action as well as scientifically correct methods must be adopted. In other words, organization is necessary, and the ordinance should specify not only how the work is to be organized, but also the necessary qualifications of those who are to be appointed to carry it on.

Satisfactory progress will seldom be made unless the organization is such that certain officials or employees give their entire attention to the work of smoke abatement and are held responsible for the results produced. If the installation of improperly designed furnaces is prevented, the public duties of the inspectors will eventually be reduced to a minimum. The advisability of making this sort of provision is clearly shown in nearly any one of the cities where this protective work is not done, by the fact that some of the newest plants have been constructed that do not smoke. It is emitted a large part of the time, even though the firing may be done with a fair degree of care and intelligence. The smoke ordinance should therefore require that plans and specifications for all construction work on furnaces be submitted to the smoke inspector and be approved by him before work is started. If this protective feature is to be included, the smoke inspector must be an engineer, qualified by technical training and experience for the duties of the office, and the ordinance should specify that these qualifications are required.

The most important conclusion reached is that smoke abatement by ordinance can not hope to succeed unless supported by public sentiment and that a smoke ordinance should look to future prevention rather than to immediate prohibition. In other words, strict control of furnace construction offers much greater hope for smoke abatement than desultory imposition of severe penalties on the escape of "dense" or "black" smoke."

The report just issued by the bureau is entitled "Smoke Abatement in Cities and Towns." Copies may be had by those interested writing to the director of the bureau of mines, Washington, D. C.

HOOPER SAVED SERIES

Jennings Lauds the Red Sox Outfielder

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—"If Harry Hooper had just one-half of Ty Cobb's aggressiveness he would be one of the greatest ball players ever seen on any diamond. As a thrower he has no superior and at the bat he needs only aggressiveness," said Hughie Jennings last night at the Congress hotel, where he was entertained by some ELKS.

Jennings declared during his rambling talk on players in both leagues that the important play of the series was made by Hooper, and it was not the latter's famous catch in the final game.

In describing this play Jennings said: "In the first game with Wood playing, Boston led 1 to 1 at the beginning of the ninth inning. Wood walked for a time, and the strain was evidently too much for him. The New York team started to hit the ball. There was a man on first and second and only one out.

Meyers hit a savage double down the first base line. Naturally the iron on second seemed a bit tight, but it should have scared the man from first, as it was a good double. Hooper came in at terrific speed. Running at full speed, he made a one-hand stop of the ball that was a corker and with the same motion drove the ball on a line for home. The throw was perfect. The New York runner had rounded third base and was well on his way home. McGraw, who is quick to figure throws, knew that the ball would beat out the runner and sent him back to third. That threw saved the series. McGraw figured there was only one out, and a score. There was a settled down and struck out the next to men.

The slightest slipup by Hooper, the least bit of bad direction or lack of speed to the ball and the score would have been tied on that play, and the Lord only knows what would have happened. To my mind it was the best play of the series, although Hooper's catch in the final game was one of the catches you will hear about in years to come."

Drug Clerk Pleads Guilty Dissension in Wellesley Church

PORTLAND Me., Jan. 3.—John M. Lavin, a drug clerk who says his home is in Leominster, Mass., pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy in the police court yesterday. Lavin, who is but twenty-three, admits that he is the husband of three women. I don't expect to get back and am not worrying about it," he said as he was led from the court room to the jail. Judge Merrill held him in $1050 bond for the grand jury.

Ernest E. Cross of South Portland, the complainant in the case, says that when Lavin married his daughter Edith at South Portland on June 27, 1912, he had two other wives. The first he is alleged to have married was Bella M. Welber of Hallow's Falls, Vt. Miss Editha Canney of Leominster was the second wife of Lavin, according to the complainant.

Next Saturday is "Quarter Day" at The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank.

SIMPLE WAY TO BANISH HEMORRHOIDS

DISTRESS QUICKLY RELIEVED AND THIS MOST PERSISTENT DIS-EASE CONQUERED

Why should you suffer longer, when at every druggist's or confectioner's in Lowell and vicinity you can secure a physician's home treatment for Hemorrhoids or Piles that has been scientifically successful in practice and that is highly recommended by physicians and pharmacists?

This effective process is known as ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT and the instructions are so easy to follow that the disease can be privately and quickly be overcome right in your own home.

The ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT consists of three separate formulae, all put up in one package. In one box you will find suppositories, in another an ointment, and in still another a box of tablets to be taken internally. Extra boxes of each can be obtained at 50 cents.

Each of these formulae serves its purpose perfectly and the result is prompt relief, followed by complete disappearance of the distressing disease or your money back.

Bear in mind that the ENGLISH HEMORRHOID TREATMENT is a complete cure. It has been used for years in the practice of many physicians with remarkable success and is now offered direct to sufferers by pharmacists who know its value.

TO OUST THE MINISTER

Dissension in Wellesley Church

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—College and town church circles in Wellesley are torn asunder in the dissension that has developed in the Wellesley Episcopal church, centering about the Rev. Geo. Nattress, the rector.

At a meeting to be held next Thursday night an attempt will be made to oust the minister.

The meeting was scheduled for last night. Just as the congregation was about to assemble a reporter was discovered outside the church. In the excitement that followed the meeting was postponed for a week.

The "ousting committee," as it is commonly known among the townspeople, is headed by Dr. George C. Anthony. The trouble is declared to have been brewing for over a month. A determined effort, according to members of the church, which is attended by Wellesley's fashionables, will be made to remove Dr. Nattress. On the other hand, his friends, who are many, declare such a thing will never happen. The minister is very popular in Wellesley, and numbers among his friends many of the students there.

Over a month ago he was asked about the trouble, then beginning to brew. He declared the only reason he could see why the wardens were dissatisfied was that he had asked for a new house, equipped with a library, gymnasium and other things for the congregation. They thought, he said, that he was asking too much.

SENATOR BAILEY'S FINAL SPEECH

Attacked Principles of Initiative and Referendum in Address to Large Audience

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas, long one of the picturesque figures and striking speakers of the United States senate, delivered yesterday before a crowded floor and galleries his final speech as a member of that body. Within a day or two his resignation will be laid before the senate and communicated to Gov. Colquhoun of Texas, his expectation being that R. M. Johnston of Houston will be named to fill out his term, which would expire March 4. Senator Bailey's speech was an attack upon the principles of the initiative and referendum as institutions that would, if adopted, bring about the overthrow of the present system of American government. He declared they originated in the desire of politicians to escape the responsibility for action on such petty questions as the location of state capitals, and the settlement of prohibition fights. As illustrations of government, he declared that the schemes for direct legislation by the people would convert the United States from a republic into a democracy, and would give its control into "the hands of unskilled, idle and the vicious."

An attack upon William R. Hearst, in the course of his speech in which he characterized Mr. Hearst as a "miserable dog" who had "hounded him," brought Senator Ashurst of Arizona to his feet. He attempted to answer this phase of Mr. Bailey's attack upon radical newspapers and magazines but was stopped by the Texas senator with the remark that he "could make that reply outside."

Later Mr. Ashurst took the floor in his own right and in the course of his defense of the system of direct government, paid a tribute to Mr. Hearst, as a loyal American citizen.

Galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity and long lines of people waited in the corridors for an opportunity to hear the Texan's farewell address to the senate.

Senator Bailey spoke for four hours. As he concluded a wave of applause swept through the galleries. President-elect Wilson, although quoted liberally by Senator Bailey in defense of his declaration that direct legislation is not in accord with the principles of American government, received only commendation from the Texas senator.

"If the man we have elected president of the United States gives the country a sane and satisfactory administration," he declared, "the republican party will never nominate another candidate for the presidency."

"Why should you?" he continued, advancing toward the republican side of the chamber. "You didn't carry but two states this year, and those two of the smallest. The contest four years from now will be between us and the Rooseveltians. He (Roosevelt) will take some more, but thank God they will be the kind we can afford to lose."

"Our conflict is with Roosevelt. If our president believes he can take the radical vote away from Roosevelt, he is mistaken. The only man who can do that, and he has not succeeded well, is Eugene V. Debs. He is the only man who can out-Roosevelt Roosevelt in attracting the radical vote. What the democratic party needs is not the radical but the demagogue."

Much of Senator Bailey's speech was devoted to excerpts and quotations from the writings of men who organized and administered the early years of the American government; and to students who had in later years discussed the effects of direct legislation upon its principles. From the former he drew what he said was unquestionable proof that the United States began as a representative government and not a democracy of direct legislation. From the latter, among whom was Gov. Wilson, he quoted to show that the opinion of students was that the people were not so well qualified to legislate as were seasoned men selected by them, who framed their legislation in deliberative assembly.

At one point Senator Bailey produced a book of 208 pages, which he said represented the 32 questions submitted to the direct vote of the people of Oregon in one year.

"Now, honor bright," he said, "how many citizens do you suppose there are who studied these questions? How many understood them when they did study them? I do not mean to reflect on the intelligence of the people when I say they could not understand, with the opportunity given to study them, I could not do it myself."

He declared that in Switzerland the people had become disgusted with the constant necessity of voting on questions of government and had gradually refused to go to the polls. A compulsory voting law, he said, had not succeeded, and they had finally determined to pay voters.

Senator Bailey declared that in states where constitutional amendments had been submitted to the people, but a small proportion of the citizens voted upon them. In Wisconsin, he said, it ran as low as from 24 to 36 per cent.

Senator Ashurst, answering Senator Bailey, declared that the percentage of people who voted on public questions in the states where direct legislation was attempted, was fully as great as the percentage of United States senators sworn and paid to vote on legislation who voted on the majority of the subjects before the senate.

Senator Ashurst, in his defense of Mr. Hearst, declared that his name was associated with the success of many projects to promote the happiness of the people and the perpetuity of American institutions; and declared that he was a "firm friend, a loving husband and a faithful father."

"More than that I need not say; less than that I could not say," he added.

SLOWNESS SAVED LIFE

Boy Saw Companions Go Through Ice

ASHLAND, Jan. 3.—Exulting in their superior skill at the "running slide" on the ice of the mill pond here yesterday, John Parker, 12, and his chum Francis Murray, 10, far out-distanced a much slower companion. Despite his best efforts, they kept far ahead of him, sliding over the ice.

His slowness saved his life. Suddenly, with a scream of terror, John shot through the thin ice, which cracked in all directions around him.

Francis followed him before he could chuck himself. A second later, just a few bubbles on the surface of the water showed where the boys had been.

The three had been returning from school together when attracted by the skim ice on the pond. Running as fast as his legs could carry him, the playmate ran to his mother.

"John an' Frank's drowned," he sobbed.

The fire department was notified and a hook and ladder company rushed at top speed to the pond.

After many hours of hard work they recovered the body of John Parker. He lay to a late hour last night scores of villagers dugged the bottom of the pond searching for the body of Francis Murray, but without avail.

KILLED BY AUTO TRUCK

Woman Crushed Under Wheels of Machine

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Agnes McDonald, 40 years old, a widow, who boarded at a house on Pine Hill street, Quincy, was struck last night by an auto truck, owned by Henry L. Kincade of Quincy and driven by John Russell of 66 Gay street, Quincy, and so badly injured that she died soon after arrival at the Quincy hospital.

Did Not See Woman

Russell told the police that he was proceeding with the truck along Newport avenue, near South Central street, Woburn, going in the direction of Quincy, at 5.30 last night. The street was badly lighted, and he judged he was going about 12 miles an hour. He did not see the woman until the right mudguard of the truck struck her in the stomach, knocking her down, the front wheels passing over her body.

When he saw the woman, he said, she was standing on the side of the street, about three feet to the left of the street car tracks, and almost directly in front of the truck. He stopped the machine at once and with his helper, John Warner, of Penn street, Quincy, jumped to the woman's assistance, pulling her from underneath the auto. Russell boarded a passing trolley car and summoned a doctor.

In the meantime Warner telephoned the Quincy hospital and the woman rushed to the hospital, where she died at 9 o'clock.

The woman is said to have a sister, Mrs. Dugan, living in Boston, and a brother and sister living in Cape Breton.

Russell went to the Quincy police station and told his story of the accident. He was booked on a charge of manslaughter, bail being fixed at $2000. Bail was furnished.

SOME UNIQUE ACCIDENTS

Man Fell One Foot and Broke Leg

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Falling a foot, Michael Cashlin, 31 years old of 3 Gratton street, employed as a laborer at the Fore River shipyards, Quincy, broke his right leg above the knee. He was walking along a staging on an oil boat under construction in the yard yesterday afternoon. He tripped over a piece of hose and fell to the deck.

Fell 20 Feet, Not Hurt

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—While working on the second crossarm of a pole located at Spear and Canal street, Quincy, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Daniel R. McKenzie, a lineman employed by the Quincy Electric Light and Power company, lost his balance and fell to the street, a distance of over 20 feet.

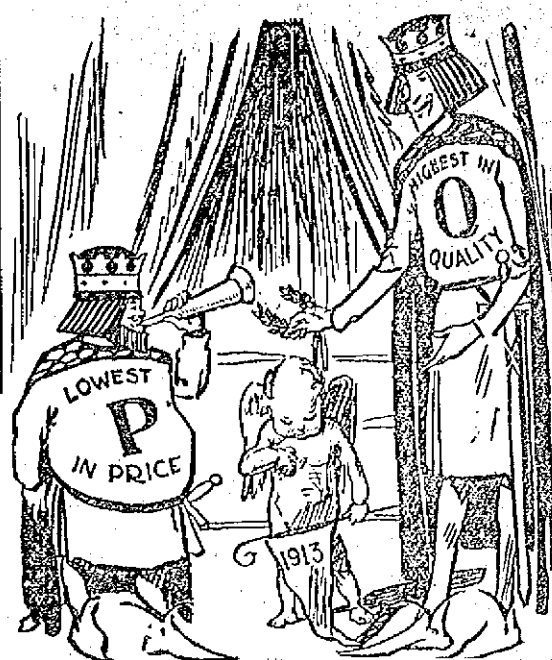

He was taken to the office of Dr. George M. Sheahan, School street, in the police ambulance and later to his home. He received slight bruises on his head and back.

GASTON FOR CABINET

Boston Man is Offered Place by Wilson

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Col. William A. Gaston, president of the National Shawmut bank, has been picked for the secretaryship of the navy by Gov. Wilson, according to information which reached Boston from New York last night.

Despite stories to the contrary, cabinet making has been going on to quite an extent at various conferences held in New York and New Jersey, and it is out of these gatherings the story has come.

The matter under discussion has been the New England situation, with special reference to Massachusetts, and the name of Col. Gaston has been the solitary one which has not provoked turmoil.

The sentiment in Massachusetts was so agreeable to him that his selection came at first hand.

This will require his retirement from the presidency of the bank which he now holds, and from a number of business interests with which he is affiliated, and it will mean a considerable sacrifice. For that reason the possibility was discussed last night as to whether after all he would care to break these relations for even a cabinet position.

Inasmuch as it is more than likely this will be the only cabinet position offered to Massachusetts democrats, it is felt the chance at recognition is too good a one to let slip by.

EXPRESS JUMPS SWITCH

Passengers Get Shaking Up

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—The Fitchburg extension of the Boston and Maine railroad was tied up several hours last night, when the hour-late Boston-bound train from Rutland, Vt., struck a switch and jumped the track, carrying a milk car with it, near the West Cambridge station, about 6 p. m. The train service was deviated from the main line to the Watertown branch.

The wrecked train was in charge of Conductor A. S. Jones and Engineer E. K. Jarvis. The train was proceeding slowly over the switch or every car would have been ditched. The passengers escaped with a violent jolting.

The Maid of the New Year Will be Hipless and Curveless, and Will Not Resemble a Question Mark, Says the Fashion "Plater"

SYMPHONY IN GRAY

The maid of 1913 will surely be curveless. She will not resemble in outline an hourglass or a question mark, and she will not appear to be walking in front of herself. What she will appear to be is a sort of moving figure 1, with an oblique line being due to the tilt of her hat.

This is the advance tip from a convention of dressmakers held recently to decide what will be what in fashion.

Skirts, say these arbiters of dress, will be straight, and to prevent accident to the wearer of attenuated lines there will be a slash at the bottom of the skirt a little toward the side of the front.

Jackets, too, are to be straight, and from the sartorial viewpoint there are to be no such things as hips. Waistcoats will be much in evidence on coats, and they will be built of contrasting fabric.

For spring the fancy suit will be trimmed with hand-made ornaments not unlike those seen on the imported evening and afternoon dresses now being worn.

The clever designers have evolved a new belt fastening for these suits. Instead of the bare line of other years the back of the skirt at the waist line is to be attractively covered with hand-made ornaments. We have become accustomed to these adornments on coats at the high empire waist line, but they are an entirely new departure on skirts.

In spring materials few serges will be shown. Bedford cords and wool corduroys will supplant the favorite of several seasons. The smart spring colors are to be tan from the champagne to the leather shades, navy blue, and the softest tones of taupe.

In topsuits the spring fancy seems to turn to stripes and checks. The leader so far is a new model of the rah-rah coat, forty-six inches long, fashioned from cream grounds with a tan stripe, the sleeves and collar being trimmed with reverse stripes. These are four plain materials to be found in the new topsuits.

These are the straws that point the modish way to women who must prepare early for the spring season, but most of us have hardly settled down to the wearing of our winter gowns and are not disturbing ourselves unduly about what is to come.

We are, though, interested in the new sleeve, which rumor says is to be full. The fashion people have been trying without success to push fullness into muffs for a long time, but it looks as though their efforts were to meet with acceptance the coming season.

One of the gowns in the cut introduces the new sleeve, a leg o' mutton affair, distinctly new, which gives the model it adorns a striking style. The skirt drapery, starting at the sides, is also notable. A touch of fur at the throat is a characteristic French touch.

Speaking of Parisian fashions, many costumes turned out by one of the most famous couturiers of the city of light shows a modified pannier drape. This costume, which is illustrated, is of olive brown charmeuse with touches of dull gold in bustle motif. The train and collar are of gold colored chiffon.

A MUCH BEDRAPED COSTUME

Some of the designers, tired of button trimmings, are attempting to substitute for them lacings of cord on skirts, as well as on jackets. These lacings are not new features on house gowns and negligees, but they are "something different" applied to skirts and jackets.

The lacings are used, as one may imagine, for flashings at the bottom of skirts and at the sides and backs of coats.

When the cord is not desired a novel effect may be introduced with heavy silk tassels in a harmonizing shade when the suit is of a somber tone.

It is surprising that women have not thought of this enlivening touch before. However, it requires a knowing eye to place these tassels correctly. On a suit of brown corduroy tassels were placed on the narrow band of shank fur that served as a collar. As if to accentuate their importance as an integral part of the costume similar tassels finished the drapings of the corduroy muff, which was edged with fur.

Drapery will continue in vogue, and a smart example of its effectiveness is seen in one of the costumes pictured, of black crape, with both skirt and bodice much bedraped. The telling color touch is in the deep toned strip of Persian embroidery, veiled by chiffon, which crosses the bodice front.

Greatest embroidery in dull shades of rose and blue is used on the gown of pale gray satin in combination with wool goods in the same delicate shade. Gray chiffon forms the vest and sleeves.

MANSION STILL GUARDED

Officers Surround the Rockefeller Residence

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Notwithstanding reports from Newark, N. J., that William Rockefeller, whose testimony is sought by the Pore committee, had sailed from Jersey Island Tuesday on a chartered steamer for a recent destination, the coroner of process servers around his Fifth avenue mansion did not relax their vigilance today. Chief R. Riddell, sergeant-at-arms in the house of representatives, his officers and private detectives in the number of 40 are investigating the report of Mr. Rockefeller's sailing, but in the meanwhile are hopeful that they have the millionaire bottled up in his home here.

"If the report of Mr. Rockefeller's presence at Jersey recently is true," Mr. Riddell said today, "I will send my men there at once. At the same time, some of my men were down there and subpoenaed James J. Hill. Our only duty under the authority of the house of representatives is to serve Mr. Rockefeller personally and that we are bound to do, if we are to remain here all winter."

The process servers were still hopeful today that the house of representatives would authorize them to enter Mr. Rockefeller's home by force if necessary and serve him with the subpoena should they find him there.

MATRIMONIAL

RYAN-WENTED

Mr. Daniel Ryan of Lynn and Miss Margaret A. Wented, formerly of this city, were married on Sunday evening, December 23, at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption, Roxbury, by Rev. Michael McManus. The bride was attended by Miss Katherine McNulty of Lynn, and Mr. Owen E. Ryan of Rockland, a cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man. They will take up their residence in Lynn.

FORD-WILSON

Mr. Leon C. Ford and Miss Bertha E. Wilson were married on New Year's eve by Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D., pastor of the First Universalist church, at his home, 221 Foster street. After a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Ford will make their home at 434 Chestnut street.

BRYANT-CROCHARD

The marriage of Mr. George A. Bryant and Miss Mae C. Crochard was solemnized Wednesday at St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. Myrie Amiot, D. M. T. The witnesses were Edward McManus and Miss Laura Crochard. The couple on their return from a wedding tour will make their home at 11 Crawford street.

BANQUET WAS HELD

"Manche de Lignes" Had Splendid Time

Club "Manche de Lignes," a recently organized club held a meeting at the home of Zephyr Roussel, 81 Fourth avenue, yesterday afternoon. The affair consisted of a brief business meeting and a dainty repast, the place of residence being roared turkey and fixings. The feature of the afternoon was the election of officers which resulted as follows:

Zephyr Roussel, president; Oella Morin, secretary; Elie Delisle, treasurer; and Ernest J. Dupont, sentinel. The same were installed into office immediately after the election, the installing officer being Louis Mercier.

At the close of the meeting all members, which by the way are not very numerous, sat down to a beautiful repast and did honor to the man which was excellent. At the conclusion of the meal, speeches were in order and the toastmaster was J. J. Morin, who presided in a very satisfactory manner. Among the speakers were the newly elected officers and Mr. William Roussel.

The other members of the organization are Arthur Delisle, Leas Roussel, Wilfrid Blouin and George Bernard.

CUT FOR 20,000 EMPLOYEES

City Council of Chicago Reduces Pay 20 Per Cent on All but the High Officials

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Twenty thousand city employees suffered a cut of 20 percent in their salaries by the action of the city council at a special meeting yesterday. Practically every employee of the municipality is affected.

Mayor Harrison, whose salary, like those of a few others in high authority, was not affected, stated that he would voluntarily remit 20 per cent of his pay.

The cut was decided upon as the only solution of a budget estimate of $1,500,000 greater than the revenue of the city. The reduction was bitterly opposed. An attempt to make up the deficit from the fund obtained as the city's share of the profits of the street car companies was defeated.

The legislature will be asked to pass laws by which the city's income may be increased. If this is obtained it is planned to reimburse employees for wages withheld. The budget for 1913 calls for $22,501,102.

VENTURES ON THIN ICE

Wilfred Berthlaume, Aged 31, Lost Life at Snows Pond in Ware—Body Recovered

WARE, Jan. 3.—Wilfred Berthlaume, 31-year-old son of Pierre J. F. Berthlaume, of St. Asphen street was drowned yesterday morning while skating on Snows' pond.

He was skating at a point known as "The Bend," where there is a swift current, when the accident happened.

The boy's twin brother, Walter, was playing about 100 yards away on the shore, but out of sight on account of a large hill which cut off the view. Leo Jacques of Sherwin street and young Wilfred had been together, but Wilfred ventured out on thin ice and fell through. Unable to help, the Jacques boy called for help and Elworth Winn, another boy, ran toward "The Bend." He arrived in time to see Wilfred sink for the last time.

Realizing that they could do nothing to help the boy, the other boys ran to Main street, inquiring for Chief of Police H. W. Buckley, and found him at All Saints' parochial residence.

Legal witness to the ceremony, the chief went to the scene of the drowning.

Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner Dennis F. Shea manned a boat while Chief Buckley stood in the forward part and broke the ice with a plank until the body was reached and taken out by Chief Buckley with a strapping iron. The body was turned over to an undertaker and viewed by Medical Examiner Dr. W. W. Miner.

The boy leaves a father, a painter employed by the Steris estate; a step-mother, a twin brother, Walter, and four sisters, Bertha, Rose, Annabelle and Edna.
